

Blessing of the Backpacks

What a crowd of children and teachers we had on August 2nd for Blessing of the Backpacks. Br. Neville prayed over the packs and Brittany Gatlin handed out supplies (after Tamara Caldwell stopped everyone long enough to get some photos).

We wish the teachers and children much success in the 2026-2027 school year!

The Kolby Boyle Pickleball Fundraiser was a success!

On 8.1, both Moore Memorial & First Baptist Church participated in a pickleball fundraiser for Kolby Boyle, a student at WCS. The fundraiser was able to raise $1,275.00 which was used to help pay his tuition at Winona Christian School for the year.

Good News!

Hallie Caffey and Keith Thomas Lloyd are expecting a baby in January of 2027. Congratulations to the happy couple!

Caitlin Wilson, daughter of Lynn Wilson, is engaged. The church office has no other details than news of the engagement, but will report once there is more news to share (ex: wedding date/bridal shower info)

In other engagement news, Lexie Flowers, daughter of Jerry & Becky Flowers, is also engaged. No details have been confirmed at this time (ex: wedding date/bridal shower info)

Don't Worry Everything Is Gonna Be Okay

God has a plan for Moore Memorial.

I understand that things here at Moore Memorial may feel a touch chaotic at times with Personnel searching for a new pastor and you may have some questions about committees or events or projects that go on up here/have went on and you are not sure where to turn to for questions and answers.

I urge you to lean on your committee heads. If they don't have the answer, they can find the answer.

Please talk with them. Have these honest conversations. Express your concerns, your questions, offer your solutions or ideas.

To facilitate these conversations that I hope will happen:
