It's Faith at the Movies week!

As we prepare for back-to-school season, we invite you to join us for a few special events to soak up the last of summer!

This year's Faith at the Movies selection is The Super Mario Bros. Movie, which follows beloved Nintendo characters Mario, Luigi, and Princess Peach on an epic journey to defeat the evil Bowser and save the world.

Friday, August 4 we are hosting an Outdoor Movie Night following a family meal in Spirit Hall. We ask that you bring a salad or dessert to share; dinner will start at 7:00 and we will move outside for the movie at dusk, around 8:30.

Sunday, August 2, we will continue celebrating during Worship at 9:00 and 10:30 as Pastor Jeff presents a special sermon on failure, with examples from both Mario and the Bible. The service will be fun for all ages, but is especially exciting for kids and families, with special Mario snacks, decorations, and a song from the movie by Michael and the Worship Band.

Wa-hoo!

Keith was preceded in death by his parents, his wife Norma, his siblings, Ivan, Milton, and Doris, and two infant daughters, Lee and Kay. Survivors include son Dean Haist of Lincoln, son Tim (Janet) Haist of Albuquerque, New Mexico, daughter Joy (Dave) Duncan of Lincoln; six grandchildren, Ben Haist, Lisa Haist and Kristina Haist, all of Albuquerque; Sara (Andrew) Petersen, Amy (JT) Ehly, and Bethany (Jon) Degerness, all of Lincoln; and four great-grandchildren, Lydia and Violet Petersen, and Alexis and Leah Ehly.

Keith graduated from Pleasant Dale High School in 1940. A WWII veteran, he enlisted in the United States Navy in 1943 receiving an honorable discharge in 1946. He attended the University of Nebraska-Lincoln for two years and graduated from the Horology Technical School of Denver, Colorado in 1950.

Keith was united in marriage with Norma Lee Woodward on July 25, 1948 in Chester, Nebraska. The couple made their home in Lincoln, Denver, Mullen, and Arapahoe in the early years moving to Hastings in 1960 and to Lincoln in 1996.

A jeweler and watchmaker, Keith owned Haist Jewelers in Hastings, Nebraska, where he lived for 36 years.
