Jesus, Pizza, and Dodgeball

Sometimes I will be asked by very well-intentioned people, "Why do the youth play so many games? Couldn't that time be better used to get into a deeper Bible study?" And while I completely understand where this question is coming from, the answer is always, "Games are important to teenagers." And I might actually argue that games and doing fun things are important to adults too.

While God and His Word will always be the most important part of everything we do, it is vital to build relationships with those we are learning and growing with. And yes, you can build relationships by studying the Word. But did you know that guys in particular build relationships by doing things and forming memories together?

Fun needs to be a part of every teenagers life. They need to have fun at home, at church, and even at school. Every moment is not fun, especially if you're sitting in Chemistry class. But we need to have moments of fun with our teenagers every day. Plus, who wants to live a boring life? Sometimes we get so focused on all the things we need to do and the things our teen needs to do that we miss out on all the fun little moments we could have.

You don't have to create a big party or plan something elaborate to have fun. You could make setting the table and cleaning the dishes fun. Yes, your teen might roll their eyes at you. But if you bring the fun energy, eventually they will start to recognize the fun in the little things too.

Andrew

FROM THE PASTOR'S PEN...

The woman caught in adultery was gone; when the moment of truth came, no one condemned her or cast the first stone at her. Jesus was still in the temple with throngs of people surrounding Him, and the Pharisees were still angry with Jesus and wanted to destroy Him. Jesus was teaching in the Court of the Women, specifically in the corner of the temple treasury – a busy area that every worshipper would enter. Obviously, Jesus wasn't trying to hide! In fact, in this setting, He offered His 2nd "I AM" statement, saying "I AM" . . .
...The Light of the world! (8:12) After the Pharisees and the woman departed, Jesus drew attention back to Himself and told those present "I am the Light of the world." Reading these words, I think back to John 1:4-5 where we were told that "The Light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it." Jesus didn't say "I'm a Light" or "I'm one of the Lights"; He said, "I am THE Light of the world"! This is a statement of exclusivity! Jesus then said, "...he who follows Me will not walk in the darkness, but will have the Light of life" (12 b). This means you will be set free from the powers of darkness as defined by evil, sin, death, and separation from God! He is our life and light! Tragically, . . .
...The religious leaders failed to understand Jesus! (8:13-19) They told Jesus "Your testimony is not true" or "You're a liar! Jesus pointed out that He testified for Himself and His Father also spoke on His behalf. Verse 19 is a tragic exchange! They asked, "Where is Your Father?" Jesus answered, "You know neither Me nor My Father; if you knew Me, you would know My Father also" (19). They were religious but lost' in the presence of the Savior but blind to recognize Him. They were angry with this man before them, but still . . .
...They did not act against Jesus! (8:20) John reminds us this confrontation took place in the treasury. Jesus wasn't hiding in a safe place – He was in one of the most public places in the entire city. Jesus was easily seen and heard by everyone who came to the temple to worship, yet Jesus was perfectly safe from His enemies. John tell us "... no one seized Him, because His hour had not yet come" (20b). Though the Pharisees were angry with Jesus and His words; with all their plotting against Him, they lacked the power or authority to touch Him or arrest Him! He would be arrested, tried, and would die at the exact moment determined in the sovereignty of God! They could do nothing "...because His hour had not yet come."
The world can be an ugly place and relationships can get messy but ultimately, no matter what happens or how people behave – God is in control! Nothing will happen until the time He has appointed to it! Psalm 139:16 says, "...in Your book were all written The days that were ordained for me, When as yet there was not one of them."
Occasionally, we all need to be reminded that God is sovereign – He controls all things.
He sent the Light of the world to call us out of darkness and into light. This morning, He may be calling you specifically. Will you hear His voice, follow where He leads, and trust in Him as your Savior and Lord? Do it, and you will . . . Be Blessed!

Under His wing,
Pastor Tim
