AFFLICTIONS

For our light, momentary affliction (this slight distress of the passing hour) is ever more and more abundantly preparing and producing and achieving for us an everlasting weight of glory [beyond all measure, excessively surpassing all comparisons and all calculations, a vast and transcendent glory and blessedness never to cease!],
2Cor.4:17

They come in all shapes and sizes some are physical others emotional, but they add up to trouble for the child of God. We must never forget the true purpose of afflictions, as having purpose and direction, destiny is in their hands. God works all things together for good to them who love Him.

God has the big picture in mind, the eternal perspective. We see only today and whether we are comfortable or not. But our true purpose for being here is to bring God glory and we do that by losing our life for His Kingdom. Pick up your head your afflictions have purpose God will be glorified through your life in the end!
