Counseled By The Devil

“you shall not surely die”

Many people are being counseled by the devil and don't even know it. His sinister voice never stops speaking, and if you're listening regardless of the argument the results are the same.

People become bitter, vexed, worried, fearful, this is the fruit of listening to the wrong voice. No one can control it but you! It's your job to cast down every thought that exalts itself against the knowledge of God.

Take responsibility for your thought life. Begin each morning with filling your mind with the Word of God. A friend of mine takes the morning by the horns by playing scripture while he is getting ready. He tells me those 30 minutes at the beginning of the day set the tone for peace and confidence as he listens to the Word of God.

Take counsel from the Lord and not the devil and see what a difference the day makes!

God bless the church,
