Tyler Hari is the current executive pastor of Ministry Operations at Eastview Christian church.. He also served many years as the Missions pastor at Eastview and understands where "missions" fit in the mission of God, not to mention his parents run Welcome Home Haiti . He and His wife Jessica have three children and reside in LCC's old church building on North St.

Matt and Tayler Adachi are Campus Crusade for Christ (CRU) missionaries that have served the ISU and Eureka College campuses, as well as for over a year on campus in China. Tayler is originally from Flanagan, and understands what it means to live for Christ in a small town, and we look forward to hearing about how to engage in ministry with young adults in a missional way from them.

Bill Pence is a Cardinal fan, elder at Christ Church in Normal, custodian of the "Corum Deo" blog and graduate of Covenant Theological Seminary. Although he has recently retired from State Farm, he presses forward with a strong passion to enable disciples of Christ to "live one's entire life in the presence of God, under the authority of God, to the glory of God."

Jason Wells and his family have attended LCC for quite some time now, and their lives are caught up in the ministries of Salem Ranch boys home in Flanagan, IL. Jason works maintenance for the Ranch, but it is about much more than fixing faucets and running a mower. Jason and his wife Jessica, have two daughters who attend LCC with them, Alexis, and Madalyn.

Al McLaughlin is the director of Ministry and More, a food pantry and more on the West Side of Bloomington, Normal. His passion for those in need and for the neighborhood of M&M is a great example to all of us, and His ministry is one we can easily jump in with just 15 minutes down the road.

Sabrina Burkiewicz – She is a Senior Social Media Specialist at Illinois Farm Bureau, a board member for the Association of Gospel Rescue Missions. She was also an Open Forum Commentator for WJBC and served March 2005 – July 2013 she as the Vice President of Marketing and Retail Operation for Home Sweet Home Ministries. She is an active volunteer for Home Sweet Home Ministries and also does volunteer social media and marketing for her church, the Evangelical Free Church in Bloomington.

Jeff Fritzen is a current elder at East White Oak, and has spent 35 years as a Town of Normal Councilman. He goes on yearly mission trips to Columbia, and has worked as a sports writer in the 70's for the Pantagraph. Needless to say, Jeff has been a unique agent for the Kingdom of God, and we are thankful for his involvement at BTW this year.

Randy McKain doesn't need much introduction around Lexington Community Church, but for those coming in from the outside, He is a man who loves the Lord and missions with all his heart. Randy is the head of LCC's missions team, has traveled to many different countries serving on missions trips and gives up nearly all of his spare time when he isn't working to missions. We are excited to hear Randy's vision for how more of us can get involved with local missions and become more missional here in central IL.
