Psalm 89:20-37

Psalm 89:20-37 • illustratedministry.com

INTRO

Share an experience that you enjoyed so much, you wished it would last forever.

QUESTIONS

- What do you enjoy doing?
- What did you feel?
- When have you wished for something to last forever?

WRAP-UP

Tell the children today's scripture comes from the Book of Psalms. Show the children the illustration and read the words together. The person who wrote this psalm is thanking God for choosing King David and his descendants to be God's people forever. Not just for a day, a year, or even a really long time, but "forever." When we hear the words of this Psalm, we are reminded God's love is still here for us, and all of creation is loved by God, now and forever! King David was an important king in Israel and loved by God, even though David didn't make the right choices all the time. God's love was big enough to surround David even when he made mistakes. Even though this psalm was written a very long time ago, it is still true today! Explain to the children that forever means there is no end—it goes beyond whatever we can imagine. God's love was there for David, is still here for us, and will continue to be here for all of God's creation in the future. Explain how that's a really big, forever kind of love! Remind the children that no matter what, even when we make mistakes, God's love will not run out. God's kind of love will always be around. Invite the children to pray.

PRAYER

Dear God, thank you for your love that never runs out. We are glad your love is big enough to include everyone in all places and at all times—in the past, present and future. Amen.

FOR JESUS OUR DELIVER

A line drawing of a child with curly hair, wearing a simple tunic, holding a long banner that curves across the bottom of the frame. The banner contains the text 'FOR JESUS OUR DELIVER'.

DRAW IT

In Mark 6, Jesus invites his disciples to go to a quiet place to rest. They were so tired after caring for the crowds in need! Jesus needed breaks too! Draw a picture of a place you go to for rest and renewal. Thank God for that place.

UNSCRAMBLE IT

In 2 Samuel, God tells David what one of his children will someday do. This child will become a king too. Unscramble the words to learn what God shares about David's son!
