*A Call To Worship Rev.Jim Graves — Liturgist

One: God hear our prayer, when the world feels like it is falling apart, when crisis looms around every corner and our bodies carry more tension than we can name.

All: We come, not because we have it all together, but because we are weary. Not because we are certain, but because we are longing.

One: In the beginning, God rested, on the seventh day, God paused and called it holy. Jesus slept in the storm-tossed boat. Jesus slipped away from the crowds to pray.

All: So we come, releasing the clench in our jaw, the tightness in our shoulders, the swirl of thoughts that will not quiet. Let this be a Sabbath moment.

One: Here, we remember: We are body, mind, and spirit. Our bodies need rest. Our minds need stillness. Our souls need belonging and love. Our hearts need relationships that give life.

All: Here, we lay down other people’s expectations. Here, we loosen the grip of productivity and perfection. Here, we choose soul food over soul fatigue. Here, we notice what drains us and what restores us.

One: For when we rest, we rise. We rise with hope that death will not have the final word. We rise trusting that God’s mercies are new every morning. We rise ready to see Jesus—

All: So we come as we are. We come to rest. We come to be restored. We come to worship the God who calls us to holy rest and leads us into resurrection hope. Let us worship together.
