Join us for coffee and conversation every Thursday morning in June and July
 –a relaxed, come-as-you-are space to sip a tasty drink, share a laugh, vent a little, listen to others, and remember you're not doing life alone.
 No agenda. No pressure. No expertise required.
 Just good drinks, real people, honest conversation and plenty of grace.
 Whether you're bursting with stories, running on empty, or just here for the refills—you belong at the table.

 Action”

Sunday, April 26, 2026
 9:00 a.m.

Welcome and Greeting — Rev. Bev Baumgartner

O Praise the Lord with Heart and Voice - Haydn, Arr. Hopson

*A Call To Worship Amy Dinger — Liturgist

One: We gather today not to write the gospel, but to live it—out loud. For the gospel is not ours to control or defend, but good news to embody with our lives.

All: In a world full of noise and competing voices, we turn toward a deeper call: to practice love that can be seen, to pursue justice that can be felt, to offer compassion that changes lives.

One: Scripture reminds us—faith is not measured by what we say, but by what we do. For religion made only of words is empty, but faith lived in action becomes a witness to God’s love.

All: We are called to be salt that brings flavor, light that shines in the darkness, a people whose lives point beyond ourselves so that all may see—and give glory to God.

One: So let us set aside performative faith, release the need to please others, and step boldly into the good news that has already been written, already been spoken, already been lived in Jesus Christ.

All: We didn’t write the gospel—but we choose, to live it out loud.
