

College Hill Acting and Music Performance Camp

Hey friends. We are back with another year of CHAMP Camp. Do you have a young person or know a young person that would be interested in coming to a theatre camp. They are welcome to join us. They get to come up with the theme, write the play, perform the play, work on costumes, design the set and put it all together in a week and perform it on Thursday and Friday. So whether you want to be in the spotlight or backstage, we have a place for everyone.

Creating Worlds of Love

Rev. Jill Sander-Chali—Preacher

We have been conditioned to believe that Love = Belonging to Empire and Belonging to Empire = Safety. We have been led to believe that safety and security are possible under empire. Paul tells the Galatians their well-being comes from loving one another well and creating worlds of love through loving relationships. Healthy relationships are made possible through healthy boundaries, and healthy boundaries are informed by our personal values. Our boundaries protect us and those around us, and these protections ripple out into the world, creating more love and more safety.

Showing Up With Love

Rev. Jill Sander-Chali—Preacher

Living and creating in the Spirit is how we show up with love in an age of empire. Not only is there is no law against the fruits of the Spirit; these behaviors help us worship at the altar of love instead of at the altar of empire. These are the behaviors that erode empires and overcome evil with good.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS NOTES

AGAPE—The Agape Class- Join our inclusive, discussion-based community where people from diverse faith backgrounds come together to share wisdom, explore spiritual insights, and grow together in understanding. Today we discussed possible curriculum ideas. We will begin a study of Galatians to compliment the current sermon series. Snacks today were provided by Horning's. Happy Birthday to Brent this week.

COMMON THREADS— We considered the probable effects of the IRS rule change to allow pastors and church leaders to communicate to their congregations a preference on political candidates and policy issues. We noted the rule change does not allow non-profits (like churches) to publicly campaign for political candidates and policy issues

COMMUNICATORS— Greetings, We focused on chapters 36,37 & 38 in the book "What if Jesus was Serious?" And will continue next week with chapters 39, 40, 41 & 42. Pat Liper has devotions next. Happy Birthday to Sharon Peters. Prayer Requests: Sharon Peters; Eddie Ravins; Renee's health; and all those unspoken prayers and concerns. May we all be blessed.

CONTEMPORARY STUDIES-We are taking off for the summer, but will begin zooming with a new book selection in September!

VICEROY – We have concluded the first summer movie, and will take class time to discuss the characters and the theme of the movie before we begin a class discussion using the book "The Underground Church" authored by Robin Meyers.

Office Manager Update

The Staff Parish Relations Committee (SPRC) is pleased to announce that Haley Sewell has accepted the position of Office Manager at CHUM! Haley has been with us since late February as a temp from The Arnold Group so many of you are already acquainted with her. Haley works Monday to Thursday from 8 am to 5 pm, and occasionally Sunday mornings, so you're likely to hear her voice on the phone if you call the church! If you haven't already met her, we hope you'll stop by the office during the week to introduce yourself!

Hi there, I'm Haley Sewell. I can be found most weekdays and on Sundays in the church office getting bills paid, opening mail, and generally tying up loose ends. I'm a born-and-bred Wichitan with a Master's degree in English from Emporia State. I've had many jobs in the past, including camera operator at KPTS, English composition teacher various technical colleges, and even worked at Wolf Creek power plant. For me, though, this job is the one I'll cherish. The people here are friendly, kind, funny, and colorful. CHUM really is a special place, and I feel honored to work here.

Welcome Haley, we are glad you are a part of the team!

Opportunity to support CHUM while you shop!

Anyone can support CHUM when they purchase merchandise like gift cards, flowers, or groceries from Dillon's! CHUM has established a "Dillon's Community Rewards" account. This means that Dillon's will donate a small percentage of these purchases with a simple sign-up. In 2024, CHUM received almost $1,700 through this program! That's a significant donation!

To ensure that your Dillon's Dollars support CHUM, follow these simple steps!

You must have a Dillon's Plus card, and assign College Hill as the recipient of donations. That's it. Then, every time you use your Plus card, a percentage goes to CHUM! (And you get a discount on gas.) Here are the steps:

If you do not already have a Dillons Plus card, you can sign up for one at www.dillons.com/account/create. When you request a Digital Plus Shopper's card online, you will not receive a physical card. Instead, you will use an "Alt ID" online and at checkout in stores.

If you already have a Dillon's Plus card go to www.dillons.com to sign in.

- Once you've signed in to your Dillon's account, you can enroll in community rewards. Try following these simple instructions below:
 - On the upper right side of the screen, click under your name for the drop-down menu.
 - Click on "My Account."
 - From the left side menu, click on "Community Rewards."
 - Use code PG779 to choose College Hill United Methodist Church as your rewards recipient.
 - Click to select it and you are finished!

Your grocery shopping will start generating financial support for CHUM! Thank you!!
