*Choral Call to Worship

Psalm of Gratitude - Arnold Sherman

*A Call To Worship Katie Cramer – Liturgist

One: Come, people of God. We gather from different stories, different journeys, and different experiences. We come seeking a faith that is more than words.

All: Yet we are one in Christ, called to love God and love our neighbors. We come longing for lives shaped by justice, mercy, and humility.

One: The prophet asks, "What does the Lord require of us?"

All: To do justice, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with our God.

One: Today we open our hearts to stories that challenge us, truths that stretch us, and hope that invites us into faithful action.

All: Give us courage to listen with compassion, wisdom to seek understanding, and grace to remain in relationship even when the path is difficult.

One: As we begin a new season of justice ministry, may the Holy Spirit lead us beyond comfort and into faithful love.

All: May we become a community where mercy is practiced, justice is pursued, and humility guides every step. Shape us into people who do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with you. Amen.
