*Choral Call to Worship

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty - Mark Hill

*A Call To Worship Rev. Jim Graves – Liturgist

One: We gather today because God has called us to love.

All: We come to worship the One who hears the cries of the poor, lifts up the humble, and calls us to justice.

One: Jesus showed us that love is more than generosity.

All: Love restores dignity. Love builds relationships. Love seeks the flourishing of every person.

One: We confess that sometimes our giving has been more about easing our conscience than transforming our world.

All: Forgive us when we have mistaken charity for justice, or generosity for relationship.

One: Open our eyes to see our neighbors not as projects to complete, but as beloved children of God with gifts, wisdom, and dignity.

All: Teach us to serve with humility, to listen before we act, and to love as Christ loves.

One: We are called to build communities of compassion, justice, and mutual care.

All: Come, let us worship the God who transforms both the giver and the receiver into one beloved community. With open hearts, willing hands, and humble spirits, let us worship God!

BIBLE STUDY
THE GOSPEL OF John

Wednesday Nights
September 30 - November 4
6:00 - 7:00pm in the Study
Leaders: Rev. Jill and Rev. Dr. Chali
jill.sander-chali@collegehillumc.org
Bring your Bible, either print or electronic.

We often say, "We are reading the Bible," yet much of what we do is actually interpretation. Whether you are new to biblical interpretation or already familiar with some interpretive methods and would like to strengthen and refine them, you are welcome.

Together, we will explore the Gospel of John and practice a variety of interpretive approaches using selected passages from the text. Our goal is to deepen our understanding of Scripture and grow our ability to engage it thoughtfully, meaningfully and with curiosity. The only qualification is simple: show up and bring your curiosity.

6:00-7:00 pm

In room #105

Slavery, temperance, and the Civil War make up the early history of Kansas. Methodists were right in the mix of all of that and it makes Kansas history anything but boring.
