History of Methodism in Kansas

Wednesday Nights
September 30-November 4
6:00-7:00 pm
In room #105

Slavery, temperance, and the Civil War make up the early history of Kansas. Methodists were right in the mix of all of that and it makes Kansas history anything but boring. Want to learn more? Join us ...

BIBLE STUDY
THE GOSPEL OF

John

Together, we will explore the Gospel of John and practice a variety of interpretive approaches using selected passages from the text. Our goal is to deepen our understanding of Scripture and grow our ability to engage it thoughtfully, meaningfully and with curiosity. The only qualification is simple: show up and bring your curiosity.

Wednesday Nights
September 30 - November 4
6:00 - 7:00pm in the Study
Leaders: Rev. Jill and Rev. Dr. Chali
jill.sander-chali@collegehillumc.org
Bring your Bible, either print or electronic.

We often say, "We are reading the Bible," yet much of what we do is actually interpretation. Whether you are new to biblical interpretation or already familiar with some interpretive methods and would like to strengthen and refine them, you are welcome.
