One: We gather as people made right with God through the faithfulness of Christ.

All: Through Christ, we have peace with God and stand in grace.

One: We come rejoicing in the hope of God's glory—hope that does not disappoint.

All: For even in our struggles, God is at work—turning hardship into endurance, endurance into character, and character into hope.

One: The love of God has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit.

All: So we worship with joy, rooted in grace, sustained by love, and overflowing with hope. Thanks be to God, who transforms our trials into joy and our faith into everlasting hope!

Would you appreciate monthly visits from a Congregational Care Minister (CCM) for yourself or your family member?

CCMs help strengthen the connection between those who cannot attend worship in-person for a variety of reasons. They visit in homes, nursing homes, assisted living facilities, and even independent living facilities! If you or someone you know would appreciate a CCM connection, let Pastor Jill know.
