We love you all, The family of Glenda McElroy

This year, the school chosen to receive these meals is Vinemont. We will be providing 1050 bags for the children in the elementary, middle, and high school. The bags will include a card written by the Greetings with Love Servant Group and an age appropriate Bible for each child. Things that will happen during Mission Thanksgiving are as follows:

1. November 2 - Mission Thanksgiving has been included in the Harvest Sunday collection. You can also give a check earmarked "Mission Thanksgiving" at any time in the collection plate or to the church office. These monies will be used to purchase all the food and Bibles for all 1050 bags.
2. Now - November 15 - All items are being ordered ahead of time to fill the bags and will be placed in the multipurpose room. These items have already started arriving.
3. November 15 - Saturday at 10am we will have a "Pack Day" to begin packing all 1050 of the bags through assembly line style. We ask that volunteers be at least 4th grade and older to come and help.
4. November 16 - Finish up any packing not completed on Nov. 15.
