Loving God. Loving People

CarePortal helps us love our neighbors

Family in Need

is visited by

A child welfare professional identifies a need of a local child or family — like a crib for new mom in California or a mentor for a youth transitioning out of foster care in North Carolina.

Child Welfare Professional

types need into

They submit a request into CarePortal's platform, which quickly sends a message to participating churches nearby.

CarePortal

shares need with

Each church can respond directly back to the caseworker when they are able to meet the need, or they can engage other churches and community partners who want to help.

Local Churches

ensure that the

Whether one church responds — or a whole community of churches, businesses, and caring people work together — a local church is always at the point of care for the child or family in need.

Family is Helped

Every request presents the opportunity for churches to make meaningful connections. Sometimes that connection involves meeting one need at just the right time. At other times, it develops into a lasting relationship.
