THE DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA

To those who sold doves he said, "Take these out of here, and stop making my Father's house a marketplace." His disciples recalled the words of Scripture, Zeal for your house will consume me. - Jn 2:16-17

MISSION OF ST. RAPHAEL

As friends and followers of Jesus, we are devoted to fostering households and communities of discipleship through the mission and ministry of the Catholic Church.

Dear Parishioners,

A Blessed Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica! Once again this week we find ourselves on what ordinarily is a Sunday in Ordinary Time, but what is in fact the celebration of some other occasion. For instance, just last Sunday we celebrated the Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed. Earlier this year we celebrated the Exaltation of the Cross, Saints Peter and Paul, and the Presentation of the Lord all on what would otherwise be Ordinary Time Sundays. Why is that? Well for my fellow "Liturgi-nerds" there is something called a Table of Liturgical Days According to Precedence. According to that table produced by the Church, the feast days listed above all take precedence over Sundays in Ordinary Time. We have had an unprecedented amount of these Feast Days this year! The more you know...

Why might this feast, the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome, take precedence over an Ordinary time Sunday? The Basilica of St. John Lateran was the first Catholic Church built in the western world. The Roman Emperor Constantine had the Basilica constructed on land donated by the Lateran family (there was no person named "St. John Lateran") after he won victory in battle attributed to the Christian God in the year 312. The Basilica, which is dedicated to two Saints (John the Baptist and John the Evangelist), is the Cathedral of Rome. As Roman Catholics then, this physical Church building stands as the sacrament of the Church, our Mother, built of living stones. What would we do without the Church? Without the Sacraments? Without that which unifies us? The Church is the great vessel leading us on towards eternal life! It is definitely fitting that, once every 7 years or so we "bump" an Ordinary Time Sunday and celebrate the Dedication of this glorious Church. Enjoy the Feast!

In Christ through Mary,
Fr. Ben

THANKS-GIVING TREE FOR OUR SISTER PARISH

This is the last weekend for the Thanks-Giving Tree which benefits our sister parish, Holy Cross, in Jackson, KY. Our goal this year is to raise donations for Sr. Amy, the Parish Director, to purchase Thanksgiving food baskets for families who will otherwise "go without." Any additional funds will be used to pay for backpacks that have already been ordered, and for Sr. Amy to purchase muck type boots and socks for the children in the Head Start program. Many of these children are the poorest of the poor.

The bookmarks that were on the tree have all been taken. If you would like to make a monetary donation, please take an envelope from the basket located next to the tree and return it before November 10. Please make your check payable to St. Raphael. If you are unable to financially support this cause please pray for all the children and families in Breathitt County, KY, especially during the Thanksgiving, Advent and Christmas seasons.

Thank you for your support. If you have any questions, please contact Anne Glowcheski in the parish office at 920-233-8044 during normal parish office hours.

Prayer for our Veterans

*Lord God, Almighty Father, creator of mankind and author of peace,
as we are ever mindful of the cost paid for the liberty we possess, we ask you to bless the members of our armed forces.
Give them courage, hope and strength.
May they ever experience your firm support, gentle love and compassionate healing.
Be their power and protector, leading them from darkness to light.
To you be all glory, honor and praise, now and forever.
Amen.*

ARCHDIOCESE FOR THE MILITARY SERVICES, USA

Our parish will take up the Collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA (AMS), this weekend, a collection approved by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops to be taken every three years. The AMS provides pastoral care to Catholic men and women serving in the U.S. Armed Forces, enrolled at a U.S. Military Academy, being treated as a patient at any of the 153 U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Centers, or who work for the federal government beyond U.S. borders, including those from our own parish and diocese. The AMS does not receive any funding from the government or military and has no parishes from which to receive a weekly assessment. RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Heavenly Hero for November: St. Martin of Tours

Born: 326 AD

Died: November 8, 397

Feast Day: November 11

Patronage: recovering alcoholics, innkeepers, soldiers, and tailors

Martin was born in Hungary. Shortly before his birth, Christianity had been made legal. Before, if you were Christian, you could be arrested and killed just for believing in Jesus!

Martin's heart longed for something more and when he was ten years old he learned about Jesus. He knew that is what his heart was seeking so he became a Christian. When he was 15 he was forced to become a soldier because that is what the law said he had to do. St. Martin made up his mind to serve Jesus as a soldier.

One very cold day, Martin was wearing a warm cloak and riding his horse when he met an almost naked beggar shivering with cold. Quickly, Martin took off his cloak, slashed it in half, and gave the beggar one half of his cloak. Many people laughed at Martin for ruining his beautiful cloak. That night, Martin dreamed that Jesus was the beggar now wearing his half cloak. In Martin's dream Jesus said to the angels and saints around him, "See! This is the mantle (cloak) that Martin gave me."

Over the next two years Martin's faith continued to grow and eventually his duties as a soldier went against his beliefs as a Christian. One day, he refused to go and fight in a battle. His commander put him into jail saying that he would stay in jail until the battle the next day. Then, Martin was to go into battle—without his sword. The opposing army sent word that day that they wanted peace. There was no battle; Martin was released from battle and the army.

Over time, Martin founded two monasteries, became a bishop, built churches and freed many prisoners. Our Chapel at St. Raphael is named after St. Martin of Tours where there is a stained glass window with his image on it behind the altar.

Talking Point with Children: The life of St. Martin of Tours shows us that even when others may make fun of us for our faith, we need to be brave and stand up for our belief in Jesus. His kindness to the beggar also reminds us that Jesus said "Whatever you do for the least of these, you do for me." That means that like St. Martin, we should have special care for the poor and needy.

Action Step for Children: St. Martin showed great charity when he shared his cloak with a man in need on a cold windy day. As a family, go through your closet and donate gently used items to St. Vincent DePaul.

Saintly Solutions

As a mother, I've learned so much about the lives of the saints by sharing stories about these holy men and women with my kids when they were younger. In teaching them, I saw the importance of learning about saints and their lives. Those known to all of us, and those who went to their graves after lives of holy service and living, never formally canonized but were witnesses to the true meaning of the word "faith." Women like my grandmother and mother who led their families to lives within the Catholic Church. Evangelists like my friend Matt, who was fearless when it came to inviting friends to Mass and would take on any apologetics argument with gusto and passion. Teachers such as my friend Sherri, whose work in her classroom touched countless lives and led thousands to Jesus by the way she so vibrantly reflected his love to others.

These days, in my quiet moments of prayer, as well as those times throughout the day when I say a quick prayer, I turn to a community of trusted saints and ask for their guidance and intercession in our daily lives. When I was a young mom and it seemed like the most significant thing I accomplished was doing the dishes, St. Therese of Lisieux and her "little way" was never far from my mind. As I became a more mature mom, St. Elizabeth and her joyful later-in-life pregnancy offered inspiration. As my kids grew older, St. Monica became a trusted friend. I strive every day to live life according to the examples set by their lives of great virtue, courage, and faith. Most days I fall short, but it's wonderful to know that I have their help and encouragement along my own path to heaven.

Kathy Baehman ,
Family Outreach

The intercessory prayer team will be available to pray with you after the 5pm Mass on Saturday and 8am and 10am Masses on Sunday mornings. The intercessory prayer team will pray with you for special intentions that you might have for yourself, family, friends, or to pray with you to thank God for His many blessings.

Emptiness & Abundance

Over the last several weeks, we have considered images of emptiness from the Scriptures and seen how each empty space, when made available to the Lord, has become a place of abundance.

Today, we turn our attention to the Gospel of Luke. Jesus often warns us about the danger of placing our hope in possessions, and he picks up this theme in this parable told in Luke 12:16-21:

“There was a rich man whose land produced a bountiful harvest. He asked himself, ‘What shall I do, for I do not have space to store my harvest?’ And he said, ‘This is what I shall do: I shall tear down my barns and build larger ones. There I shall store all my grain and other goods and I shall say to myself, ‘Now as for you, you have so many good things stored up for many years, rest, eat, drink, be merry!’ But God said to him, ‘You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?’ Thus will it be for the one who stores up treasure for himself but is not rich in what matters to God.”

What does it mean to be rich in what matters to God? I think the answer is connected to our theme of emptiness and abundance. True wealth is not found in material possessions, investments, or bigger barns. Depending on these things for our security will disappoint us in the end. Instead, true wealth is found in depending on God. What matters to God is not how large our bank account is, but that we trust in him to provide for us, now and into eternity.

Do we trust the Lord with our empty places? Are we able to see them with gratitude? Do we offer them to him in faith, trusting him to fill them with the abundance he desires for us? Are we rich in what matters to God?

As we enter soon into the season of Thanksgiving, we will rightly give thanks for the many ways God has blessed us. What if we also gave thanks for the places where we feel empty, believing that these also are a gift from God, spaces where his true riches and abundance can be given?

Praying for true riches in Jesus in all our empty places,

Sara Scheunemann, Pastoral Associate

Knights in Action

Who are the Knights of Columbus

We are your ushers, communion ministers, lectors, and members of the choir. We are the ones handing out tootsie rolls, making breakfast burritos, flipping pancakes and grilling brats and burgers.

We at St. Raphael are but a few of the over a million men worldwide who have banded together to keep the mission going, and we love what we do. But more than that, we are fathers, grandfathers, uncles, and your neighbors and friends. We are community members who enjoy our lives and families.

The St. Raphael Council 11305 are asking you to consider joining today at kofc.org/join. Specify council 11305 for the preferred council. We look forward to having you join us in our mission.

Any questions contact Mike Brefczynski at mbrefczynski@gmail.com or 920-379-7716 or Greg Weisse at gmweisse@gmail.com or 920-420-9897.

Burrito Sunday November 16th

This is a little ironic, Katie Klug from the Religious Ed Department contacted me a couple of weeks ago to see if the Knights could help them purchase some Bibles. The group wanted to get Bibles for all middle schoolers. They had done this a few years back but missed the last couple. I looked at my planning calendar, and as it turns out the proceeds from the November Burrito Breakfast will go to support the Religious Ed group. Thank you in advance for your support.

To join the Knights, you can go to: <https://www.kofc.org/secure/en/join/join-kofc.html>

Caregiver Support

Do you need emotional or spiritual support as a caregiver? St. Raphael will host a support group. Our next meeting will be Thursday, November 13 at 10 am in St. Martin's Chapel at St. Raphael Church. If interested or if you have questions, please contact Kay Sternat at 920-203-2790. Feel free to just attend.
