MISSION OF ST. RAPHAEL

As friends and followers of Jesus, we are devoted to fostering households and communities of discipleship through the mission and ministry of the Catholic Church.

Confirmation Mass
Sunday, January 25, 2026
2:00 pm at
St. Raphael Church

“Here is my servant whom I uphold, my chosen one with whom I am pleased, upon whom I have put my spirit...” (Isaiah 42:1)

“Now the Lord has spoken who formed me as his servant from the womb...” Isaiah 49:5)

“Not all of us can do great things, but we can do small things with great love.”

St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta

Dear Parishioners,

In this recent season of Advent and Christmas we enjoyed the anticipation of the arrival of Jesus both yet to come and His birth over two thousand years ago in Bethlehem. The past two weekends we shared the glory of His arrival with the Magi in the following of the star and presenting of the gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh soon to be contrasted with Jesus' humility as He willingly joined us in our humanity as He was baptized by John in the Jordan.

With the descent of the Holy Spirit in the form of a dove Jesus was anointed and began His public ministry. And so we enter into ordinary time, the weeks of the year in which we read in scripture the words Jesus spoke as He proclaimed the good news. Equally striking, however, are our glimpses into the works of Jesus, the deeds of our wonderful Servant King. Our readings from Isaiah, both last week and this, allude to both the servanthood of Jesus and our calling to follow His example. We are encouraged to be joined with Him as we serve our brothers and sisters, the beloved children of our Father.

We can be servants to others in many ways. Perhaps we can volunteer in a structured way through Fr. Carr's Place 2 Be, joining the Knights of Columbus, or becoming a part of our St. Vincent de Paul family. We have many opportunities to serve others throughout our daily lives by sharing a kind word, putting the needs of a family member before our own, or supporting another in our workplace or community in a time of need. We are called to serve others by the giving of our time in prayer or by simply being quietly present to them in their hours of darkness. Regardless of how we serve, big or small, let us offer it, as St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta reminds us, “with great love”.

Let us go forth into the ordinary time conforming ourselves to our great Servant King Jesus by sharing God's love with others through service, big and small, but always with love.

Blessings,
Deacon Mark

The following child will be baptized at St. Raphael this weekend

Parker Daniel,
son of Blake & Delaney Rutherford

Welcome, Little One!

We have weekday Mass intentions open the week of January 26-30. The stipend for a Mass intention is $20

Infant Baptism

Infants accept the faith through the faith of their parents. Our parish offers group sessions to prepare parents for the baptism ceremony and for leading their children in a life of faith. Sessions are held twice per month, all year round. It may be easier to participate in a session before the child is born. Please call or email to register for the Baptism Preparation session and to schedule your child's baptism.

Contact Jill Eaton at 920-233-8044, ext 222 jill.eaton@raphael.org There is one session for the first child, and a different session for the second child. Once parents have completed both sessions, they do not need to repeat for subsequent children.

One Catholic godparent is needed, who must be a Confirmed, practicing Catholic at least 16 years of age. If there are two godparents, there should be one male and one female. There should not be more than two godparents. A non-Catholic Christian may serve as a Christian witness in addition to the Catholic godparent.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The heavenly hero for January is St. Francis de Sales. Because of his meek and cheerful personality, he is known as “The Gentleman Saint.” He strove to attract people through goodness and gentleness. He used to say, “A spoonful of honey attracts more flies than a barrel of vinegar!” To honor him, do acts of kindness, like helping a sibling or neighbor, as a “honey” action.

JOINING OUR PARISH

If you are interested in becoming a member of St. Raphael Parish, ask a parish staff person, deacon or priest before or after Mass for a New Parishioner Folder, or call the parish office. After reviewing the folder, set up an appointment to meet with Fr. Ben or Fr. Tom. We would love to welcome you as a parish member!

Understanding the Sacraments God's Grace Guaranteed!

As I said last week, a Sacrament is not just a symbol. It does something! It actually conveys grace to the soul when you receive it. If you're properly disposed (ready to receive it), the grace is guaranteed because the Church, established by Christ and given His authority, promises that. The Bible does too.

Because of their effects, Sacraments are organized into three categories.

First, the Sacraments of Initiation:
Baptism, Confirmation and the Eucharist.

We are born anew by Baptism. We are strengthened in Confirmation and nourished by the Eucharist. That is why daily Mass is encouraged. You need food every day to move forward physically, and so your soul needs the spiritual food of the Eucharist.

Next, we have the Sacraments of Healing:
Reconciliation (Penance or Confession) and the Anointing of the Sick.

If we go to the doctor to heal, why wouldn't we believe we need to go to a doctor for our soul (the priest) in Confession? Anointing of the Sick, heals the soul and, hopefully, the body as well.

Lastly, the Sacraments of Service:
Matrimony and Holy Orders.

If you are married, your service is to your spouse and your family. If you are an ordained priest, your service is to your congregation. A priest's service is also to educate you in the faith and offer the Sacraments, so you can know God more to love Him more and ultimately get to heaven.

St. Thomas Aquinas said that all Sacraments are directed to the Holy Eucharist: "The highest place belongs to the sacraments whereby man is sanctified: chief of which is the sacrament itself of the Eucharist. Baptism is the beginning of the spiritual life, and the door of the sacraments; whereas the Eucharist is, as it were, the consummation of the spiritual life, and the end of all the sacraments."

Each Sacrament leads us to the heart of life in Christ, the Eucharist: the "source and summit of our Catholic faith (Catechism, 1324). All Sacraments give us grace. But the Eucharist gives us Jesus Himself. Which is why it's the greatest of the seven Sacraments. Each time we receive the Eucharist we're implanting Jesus Himself into our body and soul; He comes to strengthen and nourish us spiritually.

Slowing Down to the Speed of Joy

Matthew Kelly makes some interesting observations about Jesus in his book, Slowing Down to the Speed of Joy. He notes, for example, that “Jesus was never in a hurry.”

I remember the first time that this thought occurred to me. I was in my mid-20s and working for InterVarsity Christian Fellowship, a ministry to college students and faculty across the country. I had spent over a year partnering with a small team to prepare for and host a conference for about 1,200 graduate students, held in between Christmas and New Year’s. It had been a labor-intensive fall leading up to the event, and at the conference itself, I don’t remember getting much sleep. I was so tired by the end that I fell asleep (unintentionally) in the baggage claim of the airport while I was waiting for my dad to pick me up.

The last talk of the conference was given by Dallas Willard, a Baptist pastor and philosophy professor at the University of Southern California. I don’t often remember quotes from talks, but Dallas said something that caught my attention that evening: “Jesus was the most relaxed person who ever lived.” I’m sure it stood out because I had been living the exact opposite! At that moment, I felt a lot more like the most stressed person who ever lived. I wondered if there was any way I could learn to be like him.

Both Matthew Kelly and Dallas Willard noticed the peace and purposefulness of Jesus. I am still learning how to live that way, but I have learned a couple things in the 20 or more years since that conference. If I want to try to live with the kind of peace and purposefulness I see in Jesus, I need to know what my truest “yes” is, so that I can also know when to say “no.”

Most of the time when I am stressed it’s because I have said “yes” to too many things – good things, but ones that don’t fit the big “yes” of my life, the one God is inviting me to say. When I start to feel frazzled or frayed around the edges, it’s become a sign to me that I need to stop and listen again to God’s quiet voice. What is really most important? Where does God want me to focus my time and energy? What do I need to say “no” to, so that I can say “yes” to the right things?

Jesus, help us to know, like you did, what our truest “yes” is for each day – to do only what the Father wills, nothing more and nothing less – and to trust that will be more than enough.

P R A Y

THAT MAN IS YOU!

Beginning Wednesday morning, January 21, 2026 the all-new eleventh year of THAT MAN IS YOU continues in Oshkosh, featuring 7 dynamic speakers presenting "BECOMING A MAN AFTER GOD'S OWN HEART!"

Over 100 Oshkosh men experienced the first half of the 11th year of TMIY. We invite other men to join them this January as they lay a foundation for the future and leave a legacy that continues to build an authentically Christian culture.

The TMIY all-Oshkosh program is held on Wednesday Mornings at Fr. Carr's Place 2B (1062 N Koeller St.) beginning on January 21, 2026. There will also be a Virtual Small Group Zoom discussion available each week for those who choose not to meet in person.

The sessions begin at 5:15 am with fellowship and breakfast followed by the week's video program at 5:45 and the small group discussion at 6:20. Each session ends at 6:50 am sharp. (The Virtual Small Group discussions are 7am to 7:30 am).

From a test parish in Texas the THAT MAN IS YOU program has quickly spread to over 1,000 parishes throughout the United States, Canada, and other countries with over 100,000 men presently attending.

And, the cost is free, there is no homework, and if you miss a session you just show up for the next one. The program is designed for busy men.

For more information and to register, contact St. Jude, St. Raphael, or Most Blessed Sacrament's office, or come to a session (you can join at any point), or call/text Bruce Dumann at 920-379-3200 (bdumann@new.rr.com).

Knights in Action

Knight of the Month

The council has selected Mike Brefczynski as the Knight of the month for December at the monthly meeting on January 8. Mike has served as the council Grand Knight for the past several years. He has kept us organized, focused on stewardship, and is always looking for ways to improve communication both within the council and with our church congregation as well. His "Knights in Action" column in the bulletin has proven to be a great way to communicate our councils' activities and projects to the St. Raphael's community. You can find Mike front and center at almost all of our knight's events. Thank you to Mike for all he does for the Knights and our parish.

Blood Drive

Last week's blood drive was a huge success. We had a full slate of 33 donors and a collection of 32 units
