Celebrating Catholic Schools Week

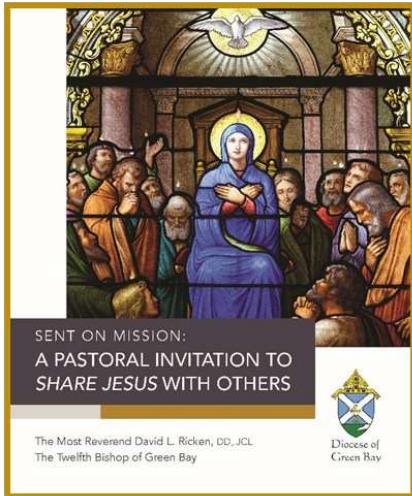

January 25 - January 31, 2026

We Welcome the Newly Confirmed
January 25, 2026

Dear Parishioners,

Bishop Ricken has given us direction for the coming years through his "Pastoral Invitation to Share Jesus with Others," called Sent on Mission. You can read the document via our parish website, raphael.org. There is a link on the homepage if you scroll down to the Announcements.

This begins the fourth part of Disciples on the Way. We have been praying and forming ourselves in how to discover, follow, worship and share Jesus. During these next years while focused on sharing Jesus Bishop Ricken invites us to get to know the person of the Holy Spirit in a deeper way. Our parish will join all the parishes of the Diocese in praying the Prayer to the Holy Spirit at the end of the Universal Prayers (petitions) at each Sunday Mass. The prayer is below, and there are prayer cards available in the gathering space.

During these coming months and years, we will focus on growing closer to the Holy Spirit and asking the Holy Spirit's help to slow down and create more space for God in our lives, especially in how we celebrate the Lord's Day and keep Sunday for prayer and rest.

With a deeper connection to God, the Holy Spirit will then inspire us to find ways to Share Jesus with others.

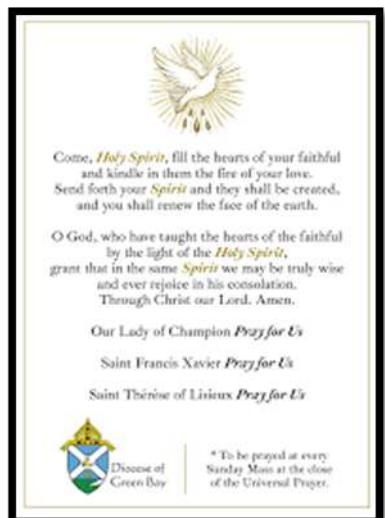

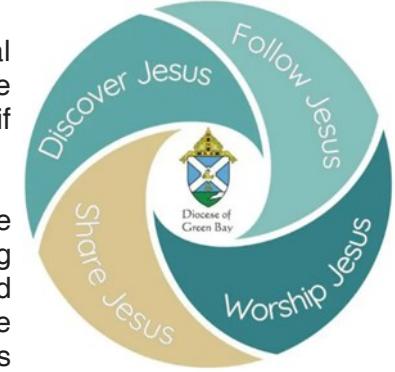

We ask the intercession of Our Lady of Champion as well as the co-patrons of the missions, St. Francis Xavier and St. Thérèse of Lisieux as we do this. As St. Francis Xavier is the patron of the Diocese of Green Bay, we now have his image in the gathering space of our church.

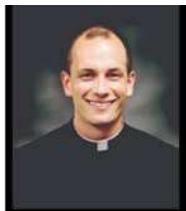

Come, Holy Spirit!

Gratefully,

Fr Tom

PS – The Holy Spirit comes to us in a special way this weekend as Bishop Ricken joins us to celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation with a good number of our high school students. Welcome, Bishop Ricken, and Congratulations to our Confirmandi.

Fr Ben will become the new Vocation Director for the Diocese of Green Bay on July 1. He will remain with us until then. We wish Fr. Ben well as he prepares for this new and important ministry. As Vocation Director, Fr Ben will work closely with

Fr. Kevin Ripley as well as our diocesan seminarians, including Olivier Ndorimana. Let us pray for Fr. Ben and his ministry ahead, and enjoy his remaining 5 months with us.

Please pray for:

Breakfast

Sunday, February 15 from
8:00am - 11:30 am - Free will offering

All are welcome!

Sunday, January 11 a group from our parish attended the Youth Rally in De Pere. We had fun playing games, heard from a couple of speakers, worked on a project for the homeless community and ended with music.

Holy Baptism is the basic of the whole Christian life, the gateway to life in the Spirit, and the door which gives access to the other sacraments. Through Baptism we are freed from sin and reborn as sons of God; we become members of Christ, are incorporated into the Church and made sharers in her mission: "Baptism is the sacrament of regeneration through water and in word." ~Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1213

At one time or another, we have been asked, "Are you saved?" Until recently, I never really knew how to answer this question, "Yes, of course, I know Jesus. But now I respond, "Yes, I've been baptized 'in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.' I have been saved through the Sacrament of Baptism, and as long as I stay true to those vows of Baptism and living my Christian faith, I will have eternal life." It's as simple as that.

To "baptize" means to "immerse" but not just in water, the one who is baptized is immersed into the death of Christ and rises with him in new life. Jesus said, "Amen, amen, I say to you, no one can enter the kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit" Baptism is the true born-again experience.

There are three elements that give Baptism its unique character, matter, minister and form. The matter is the physical sign, water. Nothing can live without water and our souls need the water of Baptism to live, to have eternal life. This water is also a sign of the cleansing of our souls of original sin, in God's mercy.

The minister of Baptism is a priest, deacon, or bishop. The form, or ritual, is simply the words that are spoken during a Sacrament. The words "I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit" are spoken at Baptism, as water is poured on the forehead three times, one for each person of the Trinity, by the priest or deacon. This is called the trinitarian formula and must be said exactly, or the Baptism is invalid.

Anointing with sacred chrism oil on the forehead in the shape of a cross is done by the priest or deacon. Candles and white christening gowns are wonderful additions to the ceremony, but not necessary.

For the grace of Baptism to unfold, the parents' help is important. So too is the role of the godmother and godfather, who must be firm believers, able and ready to help the newly baptized, child or adult, on the road of Christian life. The whole community bears some responsibility for the development and safeguarding of the grace given at Baptism.

SLowing Down to the Speed of Joy

In his book, Slowing Down to the Speed of Joy, Matthew Kelly tells us that the “one thing that will change our lives, when it comes to the frantic pace we keep, is Sabbath.”

He writes: “I promised you one very specific form of leisure that will change your life. Sunday is it. The wisdom of the Sabbath will teach you how to slow down to the speed of joy. It’s the one thing that will help you restore your capacity for leisure and lead you to flourish like never before. Sunday will create margin to love like never before and carry out the great human mandate to love God and neighbor wholeheartedly. Sunday is the one thing from which so many other good things will flow.”

God invites us to true rest, and keeping a Sabbath – a day focused on worship, relationships, and things that renew us – is one of his greatest gifts to us. Unfortunately, we often reject this gift and think we have a better way of organizing our time. I don’t know about you, but things don’t go so well for me when I ignore a weekly Sabbath rest.

For some of us, Sunday is not the easiest day to rest, especially if our jobs require us to work. Is there another day of the week that could become our day to pause and step off the treadmill of the daily grind?

For all of us, it is very challenging to make the countercultural decision to set Sunday apart for God.

One of the most powerful stories of Sabbath-keeping I’ve ever heard is of Eric Liddell, a Scottish athlete and devoted Christian, who competed as a sprinter in the 1924 Olympics. He was favored to win the gold in the 100-meter race. However, when he learned that the race would be held on Sunday, he refused to compete. Many people tried to persuade him otherwise. His archrival ran and won the race instead.

Instead, Liddell switched to the 400-meter race, a length he had not trained for, but which was not run on Sunday. Not only did he win the gold medal, but he also set a world record.

The same devotion to the Lord that Liddell showed in the 1924 Olympics led him to become a missionary to China. After many years of sharing the Gospel there, he died in an internment camp at the end of World War II, to the very end inspiring his fellow prisoners with his faithful witness to Jesus, holiness of life, and love for them.

We may not be ready for an Eric Liddell-level act of devotion to God, but what is one more step we could take to honor the Lord on Sunday? Being faithful in small things will help us to be faithful when the bigger opportunities come.

Wishing you joy in resting with Jesus,

Sara Scheunemann,
Pastoral Associate

Sweetheart Breakfast

Mark your calendars for our breakfast on February 15. It will have all your favorites. Pancakes, sausages, scrambled eggs and many of those little sweetheart candies. The proceeds will go to support the Christine Ann Domestic Abuse Services in Oshkosh. We have a face painter that will be at the breakfast, so let the kiddos know.

VIDA

Mike Garrigan came to our meeting this month. Mike is the Men's Program Manager at VIDA. He announced that VIDA is opening up a center in Green Bay. VIDA will have locations in Oshkosh, Appleton and Green Bay. In addition, they have the Trinity House in Darboy.

VIDA needs many volunteers to make this work. They need people to do painting, carpentry work, cleaning to name a few. Another major need would be people to become mentors to the families that are expecting a child. They do provide training for this mentorship. If you have any interest in helping in anyway, you can contact Mike at 920-955-3772 ext. 1018
