MISSION OF ST. RAPHAEL

As friends and followers of Jesus,
we are devoted to fostering households and communities of discipleship through the mission and ministry of the Catholic Church.

PRIEST RETREAT

The priests of the Diocese of Green Bay will be on retreat this week from Monday afternoon
through Thursday afternoon.
Please keep them in prayer.

Dear Parishioners,

One of the key themes of the Bible is “divine election” - the fact that God chooses. But God chooses, not on the basis of merit, but simply because of His mercy and grace. And He chooses, not to glorify those whom He elects, but rather to give them a mission of love. He chose Israel so that it might be a priestly nation; He chose the 12 apostles so that they might proclaim the kingdom; and He chose us that we might be channels of His grace to the world.

Today’s first reading is a beautiful passage that describes the arrival of the Israelites at Mount Sinai and God’s message to Moses. God reminds the Israelites of how He delivered them from slavery in Egypt, and that if they obeyed His commands and kept His covenant, they would be a treasured possession and a kingdom of priests. God’s message reminds us of the importance of living a life of obedience to God’s commands. Our obedience to God’s will isn’t just about following rules, but it’s an expression of our love and gratitude for all that He’s done for us.

In the second reading, St. Paul reminds us that God showed His love for us by sending Jesus Christ to die for our sins. It’s a radical love that surpasses all understanding - a love that we can never fully comprehend. As Catholics, we’re called to respond to God’s love by embracing the gift of salvation He offers us through Jesus Christ. His death on the cross was an act of love that has the power to transform our lives and make us new creations in Him. This gift is something we can never take for granted, and must continually embrace more fully in our lives.

The Gospel reading is a reminder to us, God’s chosen people, of the importance of sharing Jesus. Unfortunately, many of us feel uncomfortable with this idea. We may think that it involves knocking on a stranger’s door and telling them about Jesus. The fact is, we have many opportunities to share Jesus in our daily lives. We can do this by offering a helping hand to someone in need and then sharing how we have been helped through the power of God. When someone asks us to pray for them, we can say a prayer with them and share a moment of connection and faith. We can also invite someone to come to Mass or attend a parish event with us, sharing the joy of our faith and the community of believers. Sharing Jesus is about sharing the hope and joy that we have found in Him, and inviting others to join us on this journey of faith.

FLAG DAY AND OUR CATHOLIC FAITH

Each year on June 14, Americans observe Flag Day, a day set aside to honor the adoption of the United States flag in 1777. The stars and stripes remind us of the freedoms we enjoy, the sacrifices made by countless men and women, and the values that have shaped our nation.

As Catholics, Flag Day offers us an opportunity to reflect on the relationship between faith and citizenship. The church teaches that we should be grateful for our country and actively participate in building a safe society. We are called to be good citizens, respecting lawful authority, serving our communities, and working for the common good.

At the same time, our ultimate allegiance belongs to God. While we honor our nation and its flag, we remember that our true homeland is the Kingdom of Heaven. Jesus reminds us to “give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God” ~Mark 12:17. Patriotism is a virtue when it inspires us to love our neighbors, seek justice, and promote peace.

Flag Day is also a fitting time to pray for our nation. We can pray for our leaders, members of the military, first responders, and all who serve the public. We can ask God to guide our country in wisdom, protect our freedoms, and help us uphold the dignity of every human person.

As we display the American flag this Flag Day, may it remind us not only of the blessings of our nation but also of our responsibility to live as faithful disciples of Christ. May we be people who bring the light of the Gospel into our homes, communities, and country.

Heavenly Father, we thank You for the blessings of our country and for those who have sacrificed to preserve our freedom. Guide our leaders with wisdom, strengthen our communities in charity, and help us to work for justice and peace. May we always remember that our highest calling is to follow Your Son, Jesus Christ. Amen

Summer Catholicism 101: Encountering Jesus in the Gospel of John

Mondays from 7-8 pm

June 15, 29; July 6, 20, August 3, 17

Location: Rooms 104-106

There is no one else like Jesus. Come and get to know him better in our summer session of Catholicism 101. Whether you've known him your whole life or are just beginning, he always has more to share. We'll encounter and grow with him as we read and pray with the Gospel of John. A short video reflection from Dr. Allen Hunt of Dynamic Catholic will provide some background for our learning as well.

Interested in becoming Catholic? This could be a great place to start! Sara Scheunemann, our pastoral associate, would love to talk with you more about the right next step for you (sara.scheunemann@raphael.org or 920-233-8044, ext. 228).

Getting to Know the Holy Spirit: The Book of Acts

* Next Meeting: Tuesday, June 16  2pm Location: St. Martin Chapel

When our Bishop David Ricken met with Pope Francis in Rome a few years ago, he asked him what he could do to help us grow in our relationship with the Holy Spirit. Pope Francis encouraged him to read and pray with the Acts of the Apostles as a source of inspiration. As our diocese enters a season focused on growing deeper in our relationship with the Holy Spirit, we invite our parish to follow this advice!

Join us for a weekly time of prayer and conversation about Acts and the role of the Holy Spirit in the church at its founding and today in our own lives.

We'll meet most Tuesdays through the summer months. Check the bulletin or the calendar on the St. Raphael website to confirm we are meeting that particular week. Contact Sara, Pastoral Associate, sara.scheunemann@raphael.org or 920-233-8044, ext. 228 for more information. No RSVP required.

Women of Faith Small Groups

Looking for community with others seeking to grow in their faith? New women are welcome to join in at any time! We are currently offering a study on Women in the Old Testament.

Mom's Group: First & Third Tuesdays of the Month (Sept-May), 9 am, St. Raphael, Good Samaritan Hall / For information on summer playdates, contact Sara at sara.scheunemann@raphael.org.

Working Mom's Group: Second Saturdays of the Month, 9 am, St. Raphael, Rooms 110 & 111 (off of Good Samaritan Hall)

Women's Group Open to All: Third Mondays of the Month, 2 pm, St. Raphael Rooms 104-106

Women's Group Open to All: Third Mondays of the Month, 7 pm, St. Raphael, Parent Room (located near the bathrooms) – off for the summer

Contact Sara at sara.scheunemann@raphael.org or 920-233-8044, ext. 228, to be connected to any of these groups.

Our church is open during the daytime almost every day of the year. Evening times vary based on scheduled events. You are welcome to spend time in prayer in the church or in our Eucharistic Chapel (in back of church). Praying with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament (tabernacle) is unlike praying in any other location because of the real presence of Christ.

Making Room for the Holy Spirit

We've been invited by our Bishop to make more room for the Holy Spirit in our lives. Sometimes though, we face barriers – like physical clutter and disorganization – that make that challenging. Join us for our summer speakers to think about practical ways to make space for God in your life.

Reducing the Clutter in Your Life with Katie Zurawski

Tuesday, June 16, 6:30-7:30 pm with Pizza at 6:00 pm (Please RSVP below) Good Samaritan Hall

Come and hear from Katie Zurawski, a fellow parishioner and "Decluttering Queen," as she shares about how to make space for God by reducing clutter and creating a more peaceful environment in our homes.

Families are especially invited! We'll have pizza before Katie's talk at 6:00 pm. There will be childcare available during the talk for kids under 5 and activities for those 5 and older. Middle- and high-schoolers are welcome to stay for the talk. Please RSVP here by June 15:

Knights of Columbus Core Principles

The Knights of Columbus has four core principles:
Charity, Unity, Fraternity and Patriotism

Today we will talk about Charity. Our catholic faith teaches us to "Love thy neighbor as thyself". Members of the Knights of Columbus show love for their neighbors by conducting food drives, coats for kids, supporting crisis centers, supporting homeless shelters, Special Olympics, and by supporting mothers who choose life for their babies. Knights recognize that our mission, and our faith in God, compels us to action. There is no better way to experience love and compassion than by helping those in need, a call we answer every day.

Burrito Breakfast

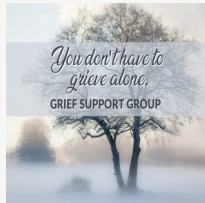

The Burrito Breakfast will be held on Sunday, June 21. This is Father's Day. So, bring Dad in to enjoy a burrito. The proceeds will benefit the Christ Child Society.
