MISSION OF ST. RAPHAEL

As friends and followers of Jesus, we are devoted to fostering households and communities of discipleship through the mission and ministry of the Catholic Church.

Dear Parishioners,

Continuing with last month's theme, I wanted to offer a few more thoughts about the proper prayers of Mass: the Prayer Over the Offerings (this month) and the Prayer After Communion (next month).

The Prayer Over the Offerings is said by the Priest after he says to the People, "Pray brethren..." and they stand and reply. Like the Collect, this prayer is very theologically rich and many are of very ancient origin. For example, this week's Prayer is a collection of liturgical prayers that dates back to as early as the 5th century!

If the Collect "collects" all the prayers and intentions of those present at Mass (that's us!), then the Prayer Over the Offerings joins our personal intentions to the offerings of bread and wine and asks God to accept all that we offer him.

Let's look at this week's Prayer Over the Offerings, for the 25th Sunday of Ordinary Time, in two parts: "Receive with favor, O Lord, we pray the offerings of your people..."

Addressing the Father, the Prayer begins by acknowledging what is being offered and makes a petition that it be accepted. Again, the Priest is not just speaking about the physical offerings on the altar, but just as importantly, the spiritual offerings we present with the bread and wine (our hearts, needs, intentions, etc.)—all that he "collected" at the beginning of Mass! "...that what they profess with devotion and faith may be theirs through these heavenly mysteries."

Second, the Prayer explains why we make these offerings. This week, we ask the Father to accept our offerings so that what we profess with devotion and faith may be ours through the consecration and reception of the Eucharist. What is it that we are professing with faith and devotion that we ask be ours? Think about what we just heard in the Readings, Homily, Creed, and Petitions: we ask that the power of Christ's life, death, and resurrection (the Paschal Mystery) transform our lives now in this life so that we might live with him forever in the life to come. We never should want to leave Mass the same as before it started. We ask the Father that what we profess with our lips may become the reality in our hearts!

May the Holy Mass be a source of renewal and transformation of our hearts each and every week!

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The Heavenly Hero for the month of September is St. Padre Pio. Padre Pio called the Rosary the oxygen of the soul. As a family, pray at least one decade of the Rosary together each day this week. Offer your prayers for those in greatest need, especially those suffering with sickness of body or soul.

- Oct. 28: All catechist retreat at Fr. Carr's Place 2B. No classes for weekly class students.

September 20 is Catechetical Sunday

Catechetical Sunday is an annual event in the Catholic Church set aside to honor those who teach and pass on the Christian faith—and to rededicate the entire community to sharing the Gospel. This includes catechists, teachers, and parents of school aged children. THANK YOU to all those who help bring youth and families closer to Christ through their word and example!

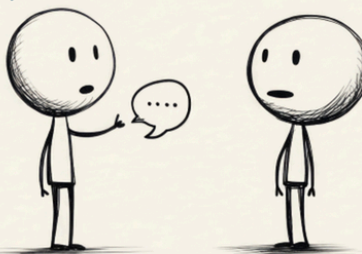

An extra BIG shout out to the following parishioners who stepped forward as new catechists and mentors this year:

- Sarah Doll (3rd grade)
- Jane Boettcher (4th grade)

The Beauty of Fall:

Seeing God in His Creation

"The heavens declare the glory of God; the sky proclaims his handiwork." ~Psalm 19:2

As the leaves begin to change, the air becomes crisp, and the days grow shorter. We are reminded of the beauty and wonder of creation. Fall is a beautiful season of change, a time when nature puts on a spectacular display of color and invites us to slow down and appreciate the blessings around us.

The changing leaves can remind us that change is a natural part of life. Just as the trees let go of their leaves, we too are sometimes called to let go of worries, disappointments, fears, or things that keep us from growing closer to God. Letting go can be difficult, but it can also make room for something new.

Fall is also the season of thanksgiving. As we enjoy pumpkins, apples, harvests, football games, family gatherings, and beautiful walks outdoors, may we remember the One who provides all that we have. Every good gift comes from God.

This fall, take time as a family to enjoy God's creation. Go for a walk and admire the changing leaves, collect colorful leaves with your children or grandchildren, pause to thank God for the beauty of nature, for your family and friends, and for the many blessings in your life.

As Catholics, we are called to recognize God's presence, not only inside our churches, but also in the beauty of the world He created. May the colors of fall remind us of God's creativity, His generosity, and His unfailing love.

May this beautiful fall season bring your family opportunities to slow down, give thanks, and see God's fingerprints everywhere around you!

Discernment & the Holy Spirit: In Desolation, Remember God is Helping Us

For the last couple weeks, we have been looking at St. Ignatius's insights about what to do in times of spiritual desolation – times when we are drawn away from the Lord and we feel lukewarm, at best, about our commitments to prayer. So far, we have considered two “rules” to help us act against the spirit of desolation:

- When in desolation, never make any changes to our plans for prayer.
- Instead, act against the desolation by doing more than we had planned for our prayer (even a little more).

What else might help us resist the spirit of desolation, which seeks to pull us away from God? Ignatius encourages us to remember that God has given us “sufficient grace” to help us through this difficulty.

In times of consolation, we sense God's abundant grace. We have a tangible sense of God's love and presence, and we are full of joy and peace. This sense disappears in desolation. We feel instead like God is not present with us. Our feelings of joy and peace dry up. We must remember that these negative feelings, no matter how strong they might be, are not grounded in reality. God is always with us, and his help is always present. We always have “sufficient grace” or help for whatever struggles we face.

Remembering the truth that God is always there to help us shifts our focus off ourselves and what we are feeling. It pulls our eyes back to God, who is lovingly present to us at every moment, whether or not we feel it. It helps to silence the lies that can be very loud during times of desolation.

We might want more help than we feel like God is giving us in that moment. We want to return to consolation! For now, we can know that God is with us and giving us what we need – enough grace to help us be faithful to him and resist the temptation to give up.

When you are struggling, what helps you remember God's love and care for you?

Women of Faith Small Groups

We invite the women of St. Raphael to join us this fall for one of our Women of Faith small groups. We meet once a month, so it's not a huge commitment, but we receive a lot from this small investment of time: friendships with other women who share our faith; time to reflect, pray, and grow in our relationship with God; and inspiration from the women of the Old Testament (our current topic), just to name a few.

Fall is a great time for a new beginning. We hope you will join us in September!

A Surge of the Heart:

Moving from saying our prayers to a life of prayer Starts this week!

Tuesdays, Sept. 22, Oct. 6 & 20, Nov. 3 & 17

6:30-7:45 pm

Location: Good Samaritan Hall

Therese of Lisieux called prayer "a surge of the heart" – the soul's response to the gentle pull towards communion with God. In this five-session course, we will explore the rich vision of Christian spirituality and the place of prayer within it, seeing prayer not merely as a practice but as a growing relationship with God. From this wider perspective, we will consider practical ways of praying and the challenges that often accompany the journey.

This course is for those who have ever felt confused or uncertain about prayer, and for those who want to deepen their own prayer life.

Sessions:

- The context of prayer – where prayer happens
- Temples of the Spirit – desire, longing, and sacred hearts
- How we talk to God – methods of prayer
- How God talks to us – listening for the still, small voice
- Dealing with common obstacles in prayer
