Dear Parishioners,

This weekend we mark the 800th anniversary of the death of St. Francis of Assisi. When we think of saints, St. Francis is often one of the first that comes to mind. St. Francis took the call to live out his faith very seriously. He lived a life of poverty and gathered others around him to do the same. Through service to the poor, he reminded all Christians of our need to serve those in most need.

As the son of a wealthy merchant, Francis saw a man disfigured by the disease of leprosy. Francis stopped, gave the man his cloak and a kiss. After this encounter, Francis grew in his faith and heard God's call to follow the Lord in a much deeper way. He renounced his wealth and helped to rebuild the Church through a life of prayer, poverty, and service. St. Francis and St. Clare began a spiritual movement that continues to flourish 800 years later. Today, religious communities of sisters, brothers and priests live according to the witness and example of St. Francis. Many laypeople live as Secular Franciscans, devoted to living Franciscan spirituality.

Here in Oshkosh, the Sisters of the Sorrowful Mother, a Franciscan congregation, have been present in our community since 1891 when they opened St. Mary's Hospital and later Mercy Hospital. Franciscan Courts, across the street from St. Raphael Church, is their retirement home for the sisters in the US. Several other communities of Franciscan Sisters, including the Franciscan Sisters of Christian Charity from Manitowoc, served over the years in Oshkosh, especially in our Catholic schools.

Today St. Francis continues to be a witness to following Christ wholeheartedly. His witness challenges us to live simply, to be intentional in our care for the poor, to seek peace with God, with other people and with all of God's creation.

This month of October is Respect Life Month. May St. Francis inspire us to give reverence to all life, from conception until natural death. May we see the presence of Christ in the unborn, in the poor, in the elderly and in all people.

Gratefully,
Fr Tom

Christian Family Movement

As fall approaches we have so many things to look forward to and be thankful for, including gathering once again as a CFM "family of families" beginning the evening of October the 10!

If you participated in CFM last year we look forward to joining in fellowship with you once again. If you will be newly joining, welcome!

This year we will register with CFM National as one group through our parish, St. Raphael the Archangel, not as individual families online at the CFM website. You may register by:

- Stopping by the CFM table in the gathering space after Mass
- Emailing Deacon Mark at cfm@raphael.org
- Clicking on the contact link on the CFM page at our St. Raphael the Archangel website

There is a fee for renewing membership (reduced for those joining initially). If this is an issue contact us. No one will be prevented from joining our "family" due to cost. If you have any questions do not hesitate to reach out through email or by calling the parish office. This year let us continue growing, making a difference in our families, parish, and community through our love for God and each other!

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Heavenly Hero for the month of October: Therese of Lisieux

Born: January 2nd, 1873

Died: September 30, 1897

Feast Day: October 1

Patronage: Missionaries, Florists, Pilots, and the sick

Saint Thérèse of Lisieux, affectionately known as "The Little Flower," is one of the most beloved Catholic saints in the world. Born Marie-Françoise-Thérèse Martin in France, she grew up in a deeply faithful home.

Thérèse was the youngest of five sisters. As a toddler, she was full of joy, but when she was just four years old, her mother died of cancer. This loss made little Thérèse very sensitive. One day, when Thérèse was very sick in bed, her sisters prayed to Mother Mary. Thérèse saw a statue of the Blessed Mother smile at her, and she was instantly healed. Later, on Christmas Eve when she was 13, Jesus gave her a special grace of strength that cured her oversensitivity and filled her heart with a desire to serve others.

Thérèse knew very early that she wanted to be a Carmelite nun, just like her older sisters. God made a way, and she was allowed to join the Carmelite monastery in Lisieux when she was 15 years old.

Inside the convent, Thérèse dreamed of doing grand, heroic things for God, but she realized she was too small for giant deeds. So, she invented a beautiful path called "The Little Way". This means that you can become a saint by doing small things with great love.

Thérèse became sick with tuberculosis but she offered her suffering and pain to Jesus. Her superior ordered her to write down her life story, which became a famous book called Story of a Soul. When she died, she said she would spend her heaven doing good on Earth. She was canonized in 1927 and made a Doctor of the Church in 1997 by St. Pope John Paul II.

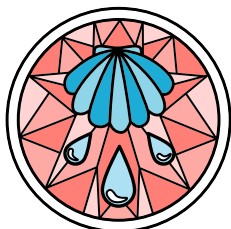

Talking Point with Children: The life of St. Therese of Lisieux shows us that simple acts of kindness can lead to holiness. We can help build God's kingdom by loving the people who are closest to us.

Action Step for Children: This week follow Therese's "little way" by doing small things with great love. Some examples are: Smiling at someone who is grumpy or unkind, picking up a piece of trash or a dropped item to help someone else, offering a small prayer for someone you don't know very well.

Upcoming Faith Formation Events:

- Oct. 13 (4:30)/ Oct. 14 (4:30 and 5:30): Parent Session 1
- Oct. 28: All catechist retreat at Fr. Carr's Place 2B. No classes for weekly class students.
- Nov. 7/8, 3-6: First Reconciliation Retreat

The following child will be baptized at

St. Raphael this weekend

Mason James,

son of Anthony Rusch &
Karigan Hoppe

Welcome, Little One!

The Knights of Columbus will sponsor a Coats for Kids campaign during the month of October. Starting this weekend October 4/5, bring your new or gently used children's coats to church.

There will be a collection box in the Gathering Space. All coats will go to the Salvation Army. Please call the parish office at 920-233-8044 if you have any questions.

Teaching Your Children to Talk to God

One of the greatest gifts we can give our children is the confidence to talk to God.

Prayer doesn't have to be complicated. Children can learn that prayer is simply spending time with God, talking to Him, thanking Him, asking for help, telling Him what is in their hearts, and even sitting quietly with Him.

As parents you have a special opportunity to teach your children how to pray. The example of parents is an important part of a child's faith development.

- When your child is worried, say, "Let's ask Jesus to help us."
- When something wonderful happens, say, "Let's thank God for that blessing."
- When someone is sick, say, "Let's pray for them."
- When your child has made a mistake, remind them that they can always turn to God and ask for forgiveness.

Help your children understand that God wants to hear about everything in their lives, their joys, their fears, their questions, their hopes, and even the things that make them sad.

This week choose one quiet moment each day to stop and talk to Jesus as a family. Let each person say one thing they want to thank God for, ask God for, or tell God about. Our children may not remember every prayer we taught them, but they will remember that we taught them they can always talk to God.

Discernment & the Holy Spirit: Why does God allow Desolation?

For the last few weeks, we have been looking at St. Ignatius's insights about what to do in times of spiritual desolation – times when we are drawn away from the Lord and we feel lukewarm, at best, about our commitments to prayer and the spiritual things that we know deep down are good for us.

We have explored Ignatius's wisdom about what we can do to faithfully endure a time of desolation:

- Be faithful to prayer.
- Increase our prayer time, even by a little.
- Look for good things to do instead of turning to false comforts.
- Remember that God is there to help us.
- Be patient.
- Keep our thoughts on the hope that God will bring us out of desolation soon (rather than following the spiral of negative thinking).

But the question arises? Why does God allow desolation at all? Wouldn't it be better if we could remain in the joys of spiritual consolation all the time?

Ignatius has some insights about this too and offers three main reasons for desolation in our lives. We'll look at the first today.

Ignatius tells us that sometimes desolation is our fault. To quote him: "The first [cause of desolation] is because we are tepid, slothful, or negligent in our spiritual exercises, and so through our faults spiritual consolation withdraws from us."

I think many of us have experienced this. Often it happens when we first start to get serious about our spiritual lives. Maybe we have a profound encounter with God, and we make the commitment to get to know him better by going to Mass every week and praying for a certain amount of time each day. We stick to that commitment easily at first, and it brings us a lot of joy. But then, one day we just don't feel like praying, so we skip it. Before we know it, we haven't prayed for a week, and we pushed the snooze button so many times that we missed Sunday Mass. We feel like we're in a funk. That funk is desolation that we have caused by not being faithful to the commitments we made to pray.

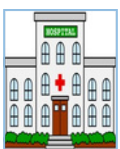

As we grow in our spiritual lives, we start to recognize more quickly how dangerous it is to abandon our spiritual commitments. As the saying goes, "If I miss a day of prayer, I can tell something is off. If I miss a few days of prayer, everyone can tell something is off." Desolation, when it's our fault, is like an alarm going off, telling us something is wrong in our souls and prompting us to get back on track.

If we are in a state of desolation, we need to honestly consider if it's our fault and make amendments if it is. But desolation is not always our fault. Next week, we'll explore two other reasons why God allows desolation.

In the love of Jesus,
Sara Scheunemann, Pastoral Associate

Hospital Visits

Is a loved one in the hospital and would like a visit? Please call the parish office at 920-233-8044 and let us know so we can arrange for one of the priests to come visit! If a loved one is at Mercy, we only know that if you inform us.

Women of Faith Small Groups

We invite the women of St. Raphael to join us this fall for one of our Women of Faith small groups. We meet once a month, so it's not a huge commitment, but we receive a lot from this small investment of time: friendships with other women who share our faith; time to reflect, pray, and grow in our relationship with God; and inspiration from the women of the Old Testament (our current topic), just to name a few.

Fall is a great time for a new beginning. We hope you will join us in September!

The great sacraments of the Church—Baptism, Confirmation, the Eucharist, Reconciliation, the Anointing of the Sick, Matrimony, and Holy Orders – have been passed down from generation to generation, serving as a wellspring of God's love in our world for over 2,000 years.

As Catholics, the Sacraments nurture our life in God from birth to death. We receive them regularly, but how well do we really understand these great mysteries of our faith?

In his video series on "The Sacraments," Bishop Barron explores their theological depth and spiritual effects. Come and learn more about God's great gifts to us in the Sacraments. No RSVP required.

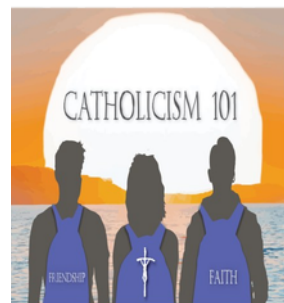

Would you like to better understand the Catholic faith? Want to grow in your relationship with God? Interested in becoming Catholic? Or being confirmed as an adult? Catholicism 101 is a great place to take the next step in your faith journey. Catholicism 101 is open to all. Feel free to join us anytime! One-on-one learning options are also available for those who can't make it on Monday nights.

A Surge of the Heart:

Moving from saying our prayers to a life of prayer Starts this week!

Tuesdays, Oct. 6 & 20, Nov. 3 & 17

6:30-7:45 pm

Location: Good Samaritan Hall

Therese of Lisieux called prayer "a surge of the heart" – the soul's response to the gentle pull towards communion with God. In this five-session course, we will explore the rich vision of Christian spirituality and the place of prayer within it, seeing prayer not merely as a practice but as a growing relationship with God. From this wider perspective, we will consider practical ways of praying and the challenges that often accompany the journey.

This course is for those who have ever felt confused or uncertain about prayer, and for those who want to deepen their own prayer life.

Sessions:

- The context of prayer – where prayer happens
- Temples of the Spirit – desire, longing, and sacred hearts
- How we talk to God – methods of prayer
- How God talks to us – listening for the still, small voice
- Dealing with common obstacles in prayer

RSVP helpful, but not required:

sara.scheunemann@raphael.org or 920-233-8044, ext. 228.

Our guide for this series is Chris Arnold. Chris Arnold is a member of St. Raphael parish. He was formerly ordained in a different Christian Tradition and studied spiritual direction at Loyola University in Chicago. He was received into full communion with the Catholic Church last October.

Attention Ladies!

Vicariate III Southwest Council of Catholic Women, would like to invite you to our upcoming meeting scheduled for Thursday, October 22 at St. Rose Parish, Clintonville.
