MISSION OF ST. RAPHAEL

As friends and followers of Jesus, we are devoted to fostering households and communities of discipleship through the mission and ministry of the Catholic Church.

Dear Parishioners,

Is it just me, or is Ordinary Time flying by? Already, today we enter the 28th of 34 Sundays of Ordinary Time with Advent looming only a month and a half away. Rather than focusing on a particular aspect of the Paschal Mystery like we do during the other seasons of the Church Year (e.g. Easter-Resurrection; Christmas-Birth; Lent-Passion), during Ordinary Time, we celebrate it all, so to speak! Although the Gospel passages focus on Christ's earthly ministry, there is no official theme to most of these Sundays.

This is why the prayers we have been reflecting on in the past few months, first the Collect and then the Prayer Over the Offerings, rather than pointing to a particular moment of Christ's life, often describe how the effects of the Paschal Mystery (life, passion, death, resurrection, and ascension of Christ) are made manifest in us through our participation at Mass! Therefore, paying attention to these prayers, I hope, is not just an exercise in grammatical gymnastics or nerdy theological explication, but an opportunity to really pray the Mass in a deeper way as Bishop Ricken has invited us to do in the last few years.

This month, we make an end of this little series on the prayers of the Mass by examining the final one: the Prayer After Communion. It is not simply the "closing prayer" of the Mass. For example, in a liturgy of the Word service where there is no Communion, we do not pray this prayer to conclude the liturgy. Rather, this prayer is intimately connected to our reception of Holy Communion and, in the official books, it is part of the "Communion Rite," separate from the "Concluding Rites." Connecting this prayer to our reception of Communion rather than the end of Mass will help all of us to make this prayer part of our own personal prayer.

Without further ado, here is the Prayer after Communion from this week

We entreat your majesty most humbly, O Lord,

We are reminded that the prayer of the humble person is heard by our Heavenly Father and is the best disposition for prayer (Luke 1:52; 18:13).

that, as you feed us with the nourishment which comes from the most holy Body and Blood of your Son, so you may make us sharers of his divine nature.

Each Prayer After Communion acknowledges Who we have received as spiritual nourishment. Then, our petition in nearly all these prayers is that we don't leave Mass the same as when we started Mass. The Eucharist has the power to transform us into the image of Christ and liberate us from the grips of temptation and sin! This fruitfulness does not automatically happen, though, just by receiving the Eucharist. We must also be properly disposed (the first part of the prayer) and ask for it (the second part of the prayer). May we all grow in our desire to be transformed by Jesus in the Eucharist!

Have a blessed week and enjoy these beautiful fall days!

In Christ,
Fr. Budde

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The heavenly hero for the month of October is St. Thérèse of Lisieux. St. Thérèse of Lisieux was known as the "Little Flower" (or "Little Flower of Jesus") because she viewed herself as a humble, simple wildflower in God's garden rather than a grand or prominent bloom like a rose or a lily. To celebrate her, deliver fresh daisies to a neighbor, friend or helpers in your community. Write a short thank you card that expresses your gratitude and appreciation for all they do.

Upcoming Faith Formation Events:

October 13 (4:30)/ October 14 (4:30 pm and 5:30pm): Parent Session 1

October 25: Families of Faith, 3-5 pm

October 28: All catechist retreat at Fr. Carr's Place 2B. No classes for weekly class students.

daughter of Dylan and Crystal Sommerfeld

Welcome, Little One!

The Central Business Office staff has been moving this week into the renovated building, and we are excited to welcome the Early Learning Center staff and children next week!

Our office space is wonderfully conducive to collaboration, and we will soon be able to host board and committee meetings as well. The staff from both the ELC and the CBO have been putting in some sweat equity with domolition, unpacking, organizing, and more. It has been a uniquely graced time of transition, and we are so glad to be here in this new space. Now all together in the same office space, we are enjoying our new capacity to collaborate and movd our misison forward! We are looking forward to blessing the buildilng and then hosting a grand opening as well. In the meantime, the CBO is humming away working hard, and the ELC continues moving in. More great things ahead!

The Knights of Columbus is sponsoring a Coats for Kids campaign during the month of October. Starting the weekend of October 4/5, bring your new or gently used children's coats to church.

There will be a collection box in the Gathering Space. All coats will go to the Salvation Army. Please call the parish office at 920-233-8044 if you have any questions.

Be a witness of faith to your children

We want our children to know and love Jesus. We teach them their prayers, bring them to Mass, enroll them in Catholic school or Religious Education, and help them learn about the Catholic faith. But one of the most powerful ways we pass on our faith is simply by living it ourselves.

Our children are watching us. They see how we treat others, how we handle difficult situations, whether we turn to God when life is challenging, and if our faith is truly a part of our everyday lives. The way we live our faith can speak louder than words.

Being a witness of faith doesn't mean being a perfect parent. It means allowing our children to see that God is important in our lives. Let them see you pray. Thank God aloud for the blessings in your life. Ask God to help when you are worried. Say you are sorry when you make a mistake. Forgive others. Show kindness to someone who is struggling. Let your children see that your relationship with Jesus affects the way you live.

There are some simple ways to make faith part of family life:

Pray together. Grace before meals, pray at bedtime, or pray together when someone needs God's help.

Go to Mass together. Make Sunday Mass a priority and help your children understand that worshiping God is an important part of family life.

Talk about God naturally. Share with your children how you see God working in your life.

Read Scripture together. Even a short Gospel story can open the door to a meaningful conversation about Jesus.

Serve others. Look for opportunities to help someone in need and explain to them that Jesus calls us to love our neighbor.

Most importantly, remember that your children don't need perfect parents, they need parents who are willing to walk with Jesus and invite them along on the journey.

Be the witness of faith you hope your children will become one day.

Discernment & the Holy Spirit: Why Does God Allow Desolation? Reason #2

Last week, we started to look at why God allows times of spiritual desolation in our lives, starting with the first reason: We have been lax in our spiritual commitments, and God allows the desolation as an alarm bell to get us back on track.

Ignatius offers two more reasons for spiritual desolation. The second reason God permits spiritual desolation is to test us and to teach us. In this case, we have been faithful to prayer, to attending Mass, and to our other spiritual commitments. We already are on the right track. But we still have things to learn about God and ourselves and ways we need to grow.

In spiritual desolation, God is asking us: Will we persevere? Or are we only fair weather friends who stay with him when things are going well? Will we stand up to the test to remain faithful even when the sweetness we feel in prayer, or the insights we enjoy, or any other tangible gift fades? Will we keep praying even when it feels like we are getting nothing out of it? Will we trust that God is working behind the scenes in hidden ways we can't yet see? These are the kinds of questions God is asking of us. He is giving us the opportunity to show him that we love him and will be faithful to seeking him and spending time with him no matter what.

In many ways, this is "where the rubber meets the road" in our spiritual lives. It is easy to be faithful during times of consolation. It's much harder in desolation, but the struggle reveals who we are and helps us to grow.

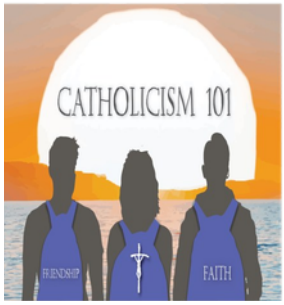

Next week, we'll look at the one final reason why God allows spiritual desolation.

In the love of Jesus,
Sara Scheunemann, Pastoral Associate

Women of Faith Small Groups

We invite the women of St. Raphael to join us this fall for one of our Women of Faith small groups. We meet once a month, so it's not a huge commitment, but we receive a lot from this small investment of time: friendships with other women who share our faith; time to reflect, pray, and grow in our relationship with God; and inspiration from the women of the Old Testament (our current topic), just to name a few.

Fall is a great time for a new beginning. We hope you will join us!

COME JOIN US!

Weekly on Thursdays through Oct. 22, 9-10 am
Location: Good Samaritan Hall
Facilitator: Dcn. John Ingala

The great sacraments of the Church–Baptism, Confirmation, the Eucharist, Reconciliation, the Anointing of the Sick, Matrimony, and Holy Orders – have been passed down from generation to generation, serving as a wellspring of God's love in our world for over 2,000 years.

As Catholics, the Sacraments nurture our life in God from birth to death. We receive them regularly, but how well do we really understand these great mysteries of our faith?

In his video series on "The Sacraments," Bishop Barron explores their theological depth and spiritual effects. Come and learn more about God's great gifts to us in the Sacraments. No RSVP required.

A Surge of the Heart:
Moving from saying our prayers to a life of prayer Starts this week!
Tuesdays, Oct. 20, Nov. 3 & 17
6:30-7:45 pm
Location: Good Samaritan Hall

Therese of Lisieux called prayer "a surge of the heart" – the soul's response to the gentle pull towards communion with God. In this five-session course, we will explore the rich vision of Christian spirituality and the place of prayer within it, seeing prayer not merely as a practice but as a growing relationship with God. From this wider perspective, we will consider practical ways of praying and the challenges that often accompany the journey.

This course is for those who have ever felt confused or uncertain about prayer, and for those who want to deepen their own prayer life.

Sessions:

- The context of prayer – where prayer happens
- Temples of the Spirit – desire, longing, and sacred hearts
- How we talk to God – methods of prayer
- How God talks to us – listening for the still, small voice
- Dealing with common obstacles in prayer

RSVP helpful, but not required: sara.scheunemann@raphael.org or 920-233-8044, ext. 228. Our guide for this series is Chris Arnold. Chris Arnold is a member of St. Raphael parish. He was formerly ordained in a different Christian Tradition and studied spiritual direction at Loyola Univeristy in Chicago. He was received into full communion with the Catholic Church last October.

World Mission Sunday
October 17/18, 2025

Next weekend, October 17/18 we are called in a special way to be "missionaries of faith." We can be those missionaries through prayer and participation in the Eucharist, and by giving generously to the World Mission Sunday collection.

In the Diocese of Green Bay, the World Mission Collection supports the activities of three mission collections: the Society for the Propagation of the Faith; the Collection for Latin America; and the Collection to Aid the Church in Central and Eastern Europe.

The Propagation of the Faith provides ongoing support for the pastoral and evangelizing programs of the Catholic Church in Africa, Asia, the Islands of the Pacific and remote regions of Latin America. This includes aid for the education and support of seminarians, religious novices, and lay catechists; for the work of religious communities in education, health care and social services; for communication and transportation needs, and for disaster and emergency relief when necessary.

On World Mission Sunday, you are asked for your prayers and financial assistance in supporting the missionary work of the Church. Please be as generous as your means will allow and continue to pray that all of us may be eager and effective witnesses of our faith in our Savior, Jesus Christ. Thank you and May God bless you.

Envelopes are available in the Gathering Space, in your envelope packets or you may donate online at raphael.org/give
