MISSION OF ST. RAPHAEL

As friends and followers of Jesus, we are devoted to fostering households and communities of discipleship through the mission and ministry of the Catholic Church.

Dear Parishioners,

The month of November is a special time for us to pray for those who have died. We begin the month celebrating All Saints Day (November 1) and All Souls Day (November 2). For us on earth, we pray for those who have died as they journey to be with God. All are welcome to come to one of the Masses on All Souls Day (8 am and 6 pm) to pray for those who have died. At the 6 pm Mass on November 2, we will pray in a specific way for those whose funerals were here at St. Raphael in the past year.

During the month of November, we will have some items in the bulletin regarding funerals. The Oshkosh area clergy want to continue to remind parishioners regarding the nature of funerals. Stay tuned.

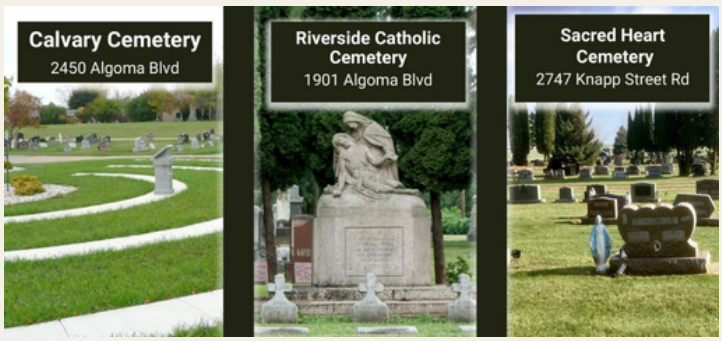

In the November giving envelope packet there is an envelope for Oshkosh Catholic Cemeteries. Our three parishes together are responsible for the care of the three Catholic Cemeteries in town: Sacred Heart, Riverside Catholic, and Calvary. When someone purchases the rights to be buried at one of the cemeteries, a portion of that money is invested in a Perpetual Care Fund for the upkeep of the cemeteries. While that fund helps us cover the minimum we need, we are also in in need of additional donations to maintain the roadways and grounds in each cemetery. Your donation this November (and again at Memorial Day) is much appreciated.

During November, you are invited to go to one of our cemeteries and pray for those buried there. While you are there, you could pick up and remove branches, sticks or other items. In your prayer and service you would be doing both a corporal and spiritual work of mercy.

Watch the bulletin in the next few weeks for more about Catholic funerals.

Gratefully,

Fr Tom

The following childen will be baptized at St. Raphael this weekend

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The heavenly hero for the month of October is St. Thérèse of Lisieux. St. Therese famously said "After my death, I will let fall a shower of roses. I will spend my heaven doing good upon earth." Her words have led some Catholics to believe that receiving an unexpected rose, a sudden rose scent, or finding petals after praying is a sign from St. Thérèse that she has heard their prayers and that God is answering them.
To honor St. Therese, say the short Novena Rose Prayer below for 9 days as a family.

Novena Rose Prayer
Little Thérèse of the Child Jesus, please pick for me a rose from the heavenly gardens
and send it to me as a message of love.
O Little Flower of Jesus, ask God to grant the favors
I now place with confidence in your hands . .
(mention in silence here)
St. Thérèse, help me to always believe as you did in God's great love for me, so that I might imitate your "Little Way" each day. Amen

Upcoming Faith Formation Events:

- October 25: Families of Faith, 3-5
- October 28: All catechist retreat at Fr. Carr's Place 2B. No classes for weekly class students.
- November 7/8: 3-6: First Reconciliation Retreat
- November 10/11: @5:00: First Reconciliation Services

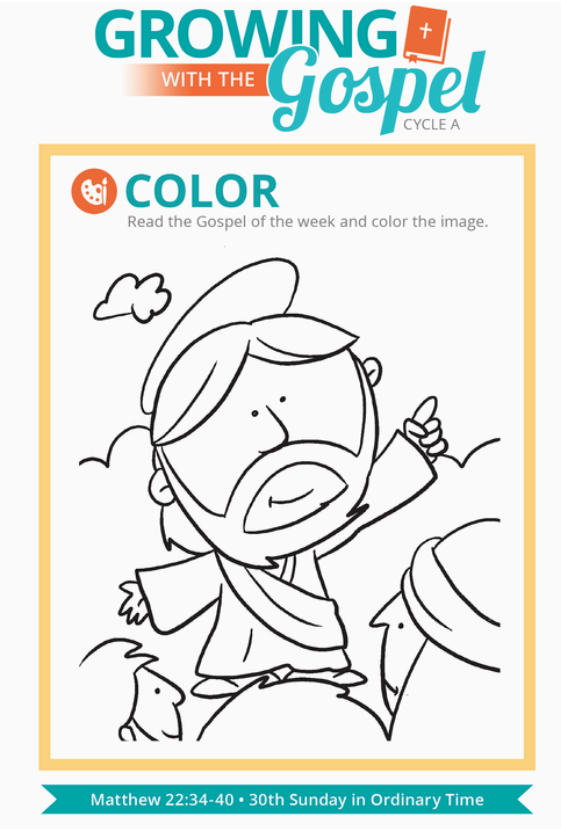

Coats for Kids

The Knights of Columbus is sponsoring a Coats for Kids campaign during the month of October.

NEXT weekend will be the last weekend to bring coats

There will be a collection box in the Gathering Space. All coats will go to the Salvation Army. Please call the parish office at 920-233-8044 if you have any questions.

Creating a Family Prayer Routine Making Time for God Together

In the busyness of everyday life, it can be easy for family prayer to get pushed aside. Between school, work, activities, homework, and household responsibilities, finding time to slow down and pray together may feel like one more thing on an already busy schedule. Yet, making prayer a regular part of family life is one of the most beautiful gifts parents can give their children.

A family prayer routine doesn't have to be complicated or lengthy. It simply means making time to invite God into your everyday lives. You might begin the day with a short morning prayer, say grace before meals, or spend a few quiet minutes together at bedtime thanking God for the blessings of the day. Even a simple prayer, such as "Jesus, help us to be kind and loving today," can help children grow in their relationship with Him.

Consistency matters more than perfection. Choose a time that works best for your family and try to make it a regular habit. The liturgical calendar offers another natural way to do family prayer. During Avent, light an Advent wreath and pray as you prepare for Christmas. In Lent, read the passion of the Christ, pray the Stations of the Cross, or choose a family sacrifice. Celebrate Easter with joyful prayers and Scripture readings about the Resurrection.You can also mark saints' feast days by learning about a saint and asking for that saints' intercession.These things can help children see that the Church's seasons are part of everyday life.

As Catholics, we are reminded that our homes can be places where faith grows and God's love is shared. Start small, be patient with one another, and remember that even a few moments of prayer can make a difference. A welcoming prayer life leaves room for growth, questions, and joyful participation.

A Family Prayer~

Dear Jesus,
Thank you for the gift of our family. Help us to make time for you each day. Teach us to pray with loving hearts, to be thankful for our blessings, and to show Your love to one another. Help us learn from Scripture, honor the seasons of the Church and grow closer to You through our daily prayers. May our home always be a place where faith grows and Your presence is felt. Amen

Kathy Baehman
Family Outreach

Dear Parishioners,

My name is David Reetz. I am a member of St. Mary Church in Winneconne. Each year I organize a fundraiser to help a family in need. This year we're gathering to show our support for Ezra Demler and his family. Ezra spent the first 119 days of his life in the hospital after being diagnosed with laryngomalacia and vocal cord paralysis, having to undergo a tracheostomy, and fighting other medical setbacks. To give you some background, this is the 17th year of the Winneconne Open for a Cause. It will be held on Saturday, November 14 at 2:30pm at Channel Tap and Lanes in Winneconne. There will be over 100 raffles of various types. All proceeds will go directly to Ezra and his family. In the past 5 years, over $125,000 has been raised for local families. If you are interested in donating in some way or have questions, you can contact me at (920)740-2213 or coari31@hotmail.com. If you'd like to make a monetary donation, you can mail a check, made out to Jake Demler, to me at 910 Elm St., Winneconne, WI 54986 or send it via Venmo to @reetzd. Thank you for your consideration and support!

Sincerely,
David Reetz

Halloween: A Catholic Perspective - Oshkosh Young Adults
October 29 at 6:30pm
St. Raphael Church

Fr. Budde welcomes young adults as he traces the Catholic roots of the celebration of Halloween and offers commentary on our culture's current Halloween traditions.
This talk will be offered in the context of chanted Evening Prayer taken from the Liturgy of the Hours' Office of the Dead here in St. Martin's Chapel.
Afterward, participants are welcome for fellowship as we watch the Packers-Panthers Thursday Night Football matchup in Good Samaritan Hall. No RSVP necessary.

Discernment & the Holy Spirit: The Rhythm of Consolation and Desolation

We've spent the last couple of months looking at how St. Ignatius would counsel us to respond to times of spiritual desolation, as well as why God allows desolation in our lives.

As much as we don't like it, desolation is a reality of the spiritual life. We prefer the joys and delights of spiritual consolation, but God knows that if he were always to shower us with pleasant feelings and deep insights in prayer, we would pretty quickly let it go to our heads. We might start to think that we've somehow earned these goods, or that they make us better than others, or that we're farther along on the spiritual journey than we actually are. We'd become attached to these feelings and thoughts and start focusing more on them than on God. We'd essentially be stuck forever in the toddler stage of the spiritual life, where we'd always want another candy bar and spoil our appetites for the real meal that would truly nourish us. As much as we don't like it, desolation helps us grow up in the spiritual life.

When we face desolation, it is good to put into practice the advice of St. Ignatius that we have been reflecting on over the last few months. It is also good to remember that spiritual desolation doesn't last forever. Consolation will return. When it does, we can savor and give thanks for the gifts we are receiving and store them up for the difficult seasons we know will come again.

Keeping in mind this alternating rhythm of consolation and desolation in our lives, St. Ignatius counsels us, when in consolation, to think about how we will act when desolation returns. Having a plan in place – a plan to keep praying no matter what – will help us weather the storm of desolation. We might also think about the "emergency rations" we can pack away to keep our spirits fed – a Scripture passage that helps us remember God's love and mercy, an encouraging message from God that we can return to, a favorite prayer practice that we can remain faithful to even when we don't feel like it, etc.

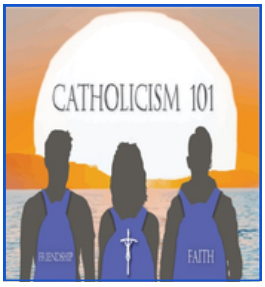

If you knew that a season of famine was coming in your spiritual life, what would you pack away to keep going?

In the love of Jesus,
Sara Scheunemann, Pastoral Associate

Women of Faith Small Groups

We invite the women of St. Raphael to join us this fall for one of our Women of Faith small groups. We meet once a month, so it's not a huge commitment, but we receive a lot from this small investment of time: friendships with other women who share our faith; time to reflect, pray, and grow in our relationship with God; and inspiration from the women of the Old Testament (our current topic), just to name a few.

Fall is a great time for a new beginning. We hope you will join us!

Works of Mercy Workshop with Sr. Pam Biehl
October 26 & 27 (This Monday and Tuesday)
Two times / same content each day:
2:30-3:45 pm -OR- 6:30-7:45 pm
Good Samaritan Hall

The Works of Mercy are a practical way to live out the call of Jesus to care for the "least of these." In his recent "Pastoral Invitation to Share Jesus with Others," Bishop Ricken highlights the corporal and spiritual works of mercy as a tangible means to share the love of Jesus with others. He calls all of us to find ways to incorporate them into our lives.

But what are the Works of Mercy? And how can we put them into practice?

We are delighted to welcome Sr. Pam Biehl of the Franciscan Sisters of Christian Charity to help us grow in our understanding and practice of the Works of Mercy through this two-session workshop.

Monday, October 26, at 2:30-3:45 pm:
Corporal Works of Mercy
Tuesday, October 27, at 2:30-3:45 pm:
Spiritual Works of Mercy

You are welcome to attend one session or both as your schedule allows. No RSVP required.
Evening sessions canceled due to World Series

A Surge of the Heart:
Moving from saying our prayers to a life of prayer

Tuesdays, Nov. 3 & 17 at 6:30-7:45 pm in the Good Samaritan Hall

Therese of Lisieux called prayer "a surge of the heart" – the soul's response to the gentle pull towards communion with God. In this five-session course, we will explore the rich vision of Christian spirituality and the place of prayer within it, seeing prayer not merely as a practice but as a growing relationship with God. From this wider perspective, we will consider practical ways of praying and the challenges that often accompany the journey.

This course is for those who have ever felt confused or uncertain about prayer, and for those who want to deepen their own prayer life.

Upcoming Topics:
Nov. 3: How God talks to us – listening for the still, small voice
Nov. 17: Dealing with common obstacles in prayer

RSVP helpful, but not required: sara.scheunemann@raphael.org or 920-233-8044, ext. 228. Our guide for this series is Chris Arnold. Chris Arnold is a member of St. Raphael parish. He was formerly ordained in a different Christian Tradition and studied spiritual direction at Loyola Univeristy in Chicago. He was received into full communion with the Catholic Church last October.
