MISSION OF ST. RAPHAEL

As friends and followers of Jesus, we are devoted to fostering households and communities of discipleship through the mission and ministry of the Catholic Church.

Dear Parishioners,

“Never meet your heroes.” You have likely heard this phrase, and if you haven’t, I am confident that you at least have experienced its sting. We all have worldly heroes we admire from a distance. Speaking for myself, I admire the guitarist John Petrucci for his virtuosic performances and his untouchable guitar solos, as you can find by listening to the band Dream Theater. I also admire a band called the Arcadian Wild for their lyrical wisdom and for their precise and thoughtful song writing that I never expected to find in an American folk band. I admire Jordan Love for his ability to throw the football. I admire Gordan Ramsey for his ability to turn a failing restaurant into a success with a little tough love, grit, and culinary know-how.

While I look up to each of these people or groups for certain skills they possess, I do NOT want to know them more personally! Each of us knows from experience that those we admire in the world are very human, and often the more we get to know them, the more their character flaws come to the surface and the less we aspire to emulate any part of their life. We learn over time that just because we honor someone for excelling in one area of life (and rightly so), that does not mean that we should imitate anything else they do!

This is what makes our “Holy Heroes,” the Saints, so much different! When a man or woman is named a Saint, we say that the Church “canonized” them. The English word “canon” come from the Greek kanōn, which means rule, standard, or measure. When we “canonize” a Saint, then, the Church publicly declares their life to literally be a standard or measure for how we can live our lives. Not only should we imitate the cool skills or successes many of them had but we will find even deeper and holier reasons to look up to them as we learn more about their personal life. With the Saints, the more personally we get to know them in their humanity, the more we admire their virtues, honor their sanctity of life, and can relate to their very human struggles. And unlike celebrities, music artists, or athletes, we not only are able to read about their lives, but we can speak to them in prayer at any time, develop a friendship with them in prayer, and receive their love and support of us on our common pilgrimage to our heavenly homeland.

All you holy men and women, pray for us!

In Christ,
Fr. Budde

THANKS-GIVING TREE FOR OUR SISTER PARISH

Next weekend the Thanks-Giving Tree for our sister parish, Holy Cross, in Jackson, KY will be on display.A portion of the donations received will be used by Sr. Amy to purchase Thanksgiving food baskets for families who will otherwise “go without.” Any additional funds will be used to purchase boots, socks and mittens for the children in the Head Start program. Many of these children are the poorest of the poor.

There will be bookmarks on the tree with a child’s name. Please take a bookmark from the tree and pray for that child during the Thanksgiving, Advent and Christmas seasons.

If you would like to donate (whether you take a bookmark or not), please take an envelope and return it on or before November 15, 2026. If you are unable to financially support this cause, please still take a bookmark and pray for that child.

If you have any questions, please contact Anne Glowcheski in the parish office at 920-233-8044 during normal parish office hours.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Heavenly Hero for the month of November:
St. Martin de Porres

Born: 1579
Died: November 3, 1639
Feast Day: November 3
Patronage: the poor, barbers, public health workers, and animals

St. Martin de Porres was born in Lima, Peru. His father was a Spanish nobleman, and his mother was a freed African slave. Martin's family was very poor, and his father left them when Martin was young. Even though he didn't have much, Martin had a huge heart. Whenever his mother sent him to the market, he would often give the food or money he bought to people who were even poorer than he was.

When he turned 12, Martin became an apprentice to a barber. Back then, barbers didn't just cut hair; they were also the town doctors! Martin learned how to dress wounds, mix herbal medicines, and care for the sick.

Martin loved God deeply and spent hours in prayer. He wanted to join the Dominican Friars, but because of racial prejudice within the church at the time, people of mixed race were not allowed to become official full members or priests.

Instead of getting angry, Martin humbly asked to join them as a volunteer servant. He happily took on the jobs no one else wanted to do, like sweeping the floors, washing laundry, and cooking. He believed that every small task, even sweeping, could be a beautiful prayer if offered to God with love. The monks saw his incredible holiness and kindness, and eventually broke tradition to let him become a full Dominican religious brother.

Martin spent his entire life helping others, establishing an orphanage and a children's hospital for families in need. He died on November 3, 1639. Pope John XXIII canonized him as a saint in 1962.

Talking Point with Children: St. Martin de Porres reminds us that while other people may see only what we look like on the outside, God sees inside our hearts. Before we judge another person based on what they look like, or how they are different from us, we should get to know them for who they are inside.

Action Step for Children: Martin spent his whole life caring for others, especially the sick. This week, take time to visit a friend or loved one who is sick to offer them comfort. If you can't visit in person, send a card or call them on the phone.

From the President's Desk

Zachary Zeckser

As I type this note, I have just returned from Faith in Action in the middle school. We celebrated this along with Growth with Grace in the high school and Kindness Connection in the elementary. At the latter, our kindergarteners presented in front of the entire K-4 school about freindship! Kindergarteners! This is the kind of concrete skill that students at Lourdes Academy develop that sets them apart from so many students across the country. The special piece of this, though, is the virtues that the students are promoting and celebrating from ELC through 12th grade. Our staff are constantly and increasingly on the lookout for ways to bring faith into all aspects of our education.

This is what we mean when we refer to Lourdes Academy as a "Jesus immersion experience"!

Helping Children Discover the Saints and Remember Those We Love

November is a wonderful time for Catholic families to help children learn about two important celebrations in our Church: All Saint's Day on November 1 and All Soul's Day on November 2. These special days teach children about holiness, prayer, remembering loved ones, and the beautiful promise of heaven.

All Saints' Day: We Are All Called to Be Saints!

All Saints' Day celebrates all the saints in heaven. Some saints, like St Francis of Assisi and St. Therese of Lisieux, are well known, while many others are known only to God. Saints were ordinary people who loved God and tried to live as Jesus taught them. They remind us that we, too, are called to be saints!

All Souls' Day: Remembering Those We Love

All Souls' Day is a special day when the Catholic Church remembers and prays for all the faithful departed. It gives families an opportunity to teach children that we can continue to show love for those who have died by remembering them and praying for them.

Growing in Faith as a Family

All Saints Day and All Souls' Day offer a beautiful opportunity to bring faith into our homes. One celebration encourages us to follow the example of holy men and women, while the other invites us to remember our loved ones in prayer.

This November, help your children discover that faith is not just something we learn about at church. It is something we live every day through kindness, prayer, forgiveness, and love.

Family Outreach

Dear Parishioners,

My name is David Reetz. I am a member of St. Mary Church in Winneconne. Each year I organize a fundraiser to help a family in need. This year we're gathering to show our support for Ezra Demler and his family. Ezra spent the first 119 days of his life in the hospital after being diagnosed with laryngomalacia and vocal cord paralysis, having to undergo a tracheostomy, and fighting other medical setbacks. To give you some background, this is the 17th year of the Winneconne Open for a Cause. It will be held on Saturday, November 14 at 2:30pm at Channel Tap and Lanes in Winneconne. There will be over 100 raffles of various types. All proceeds will go directly to Ezra and his family. In the past 5 years, over $125,000 has been raised for local families. If you are interested in donating in some way or have questions, you can contact me at (920)740-2213 or coari31@hotmail.com. If you'd like to make a monetary donation, you can mail a check, made out to Jake Demler, to me at 910 Elm St., Winneconne, WI 54986 or send it via Venmo to @reetzd. Thank you for your consideration and support!

Sincerely,
David Reetz

Welcome, Little One!

Discernment & the Holy Spirit: Humility and Trust

We've covered a lot of territory with St. Ignatius in the last few months! What is spiritual consolation vs. spiritual desolation? How do we know when it's the Holy Spirit who is influencing us vs. a different, unholy spirit? How are we to respond? What will help us to weather times of desolation? Why does God allow desolation? All these are topics we've considered. What more does Ignatius have to teach us?

GROWING DEEPER TOGETHER

Much of the advice that Ignatius gives is very practical. Keep praying in desolation. Don't make any changes to your previous prayer commitments. Pray a little more to counteract the temptation to give up on prayer. But he also has some counsel that focuses on the heart. Beyond what we can do in response to consolation and desolation, what interior dispositions or qualities can we cultivate to help us navigate the alternating rhythms of consolation and desolation in our lives?

Ignatius offers one essential disposition for consolation and another for desolation. When we are experiencing times of spiritual sweetness and delight in our prayer and interior lives (consolation), Ignatius encourages us to lean on and grow in humility. We are to remember how little we can actually do without God's help and grace. Humility keeps us from thinking we are blessed with consolation because of anything we've done, and it helps us to remember that God is the one who gives all good things. Closely connected with humility is gratitude to God.

When we are experiencing difficult seasons in our prayer, when things are dry and all the good feelings disappear (desolation), Ignatius encourages us to lean into the disposition of trust. We are to trust that God's grace is still sufficient for us. Even though it may be hard or even impossible to feel like God is with us, we must exercise our trust muscles to keep our hearts grounded in the Lord. We must trust that God will give us all the strength we need, even if it doesn't feel like all we want.

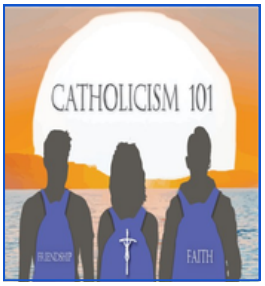

Humility and trust remain the foundation of our spiritual lives through the ups and downs of consolation and desolation by helping us to see ourselves as we truly are and God as he truly is.

In the love of Jesus,
Sara Scheunemann, Pastoral Associate

Hospital Visits

Is a loved one in the hospital and would like a visit? Please call the parish office at 920-233-8044 and let us know so we can arrange for one of the priests to come visit! If a loved one is at Mercy, we only know that if you inform us.

Women of Faith Small Groups

We invite the women of St. Raphael to join us this fall for one of our Women of Faith small groups. We meet once a month, so it's not a huge commitment, but we receive a lot from this small investment of time: friendships with other women who share our faith; time to reflect, pray, and grow in our relationship with God; and inspiration from the women of the Old Testament (our current topic), just to name a few.

Fall is a great time for a new beginning. We hope you will join us!

A Surge of the Heart:
Moving from saying our prayers to a life of prayer

Tuesdays, Nov. 3 & 17 at 6:30-7:45 pm in the Good Samaritan Hall

Therese of Lisieux called prayer "a surge of the heart" – the soul's response to the gentle pull towards communion with God. In this five-session course, we will explore the rich vision of Christian spirituality and the place of prayer within it, seeing prayer not merely as a practice but as a growing relationship with God. From this wider perspective, we will consider practical ways of praying and the challenges that often accompany the journey.

This course is for those who have ever felt confused or uncertain about prayer, and for those who want to deepen their own prayer life.

Upcoming Topics:
Nov. 3: How God talks to us – listening for the still, small voice
Nov. 17: Dealing with common obstacles in prayer

RSVP helpful, but not required: sara.scheunemann@raphael.org or 920-233-8044, ext. 228. Our guide for this series is Chris Arnold. Chris Arnold is a member of St. Raphael parish. He was formerly ordained in a different Christian Tradition and studied spiritual direction at Loyola Univeristy in Chicago. He was received into full communion with the Catholic Church last October.

Caregiver Support

Do you need emotional or spiritual support as a caregiver? St. Raphael hosts a support group. Our next meeting will be Thursday, November 12 at 10 am in St. Martin's Chapel at St. Raphael Church. If interested or if you have questions, please contact Kay Sternat at 920-203-2790. Feel free to just attend.

Burying the Dead: Some reflections on Catholic Funerals

The Funeral Mass

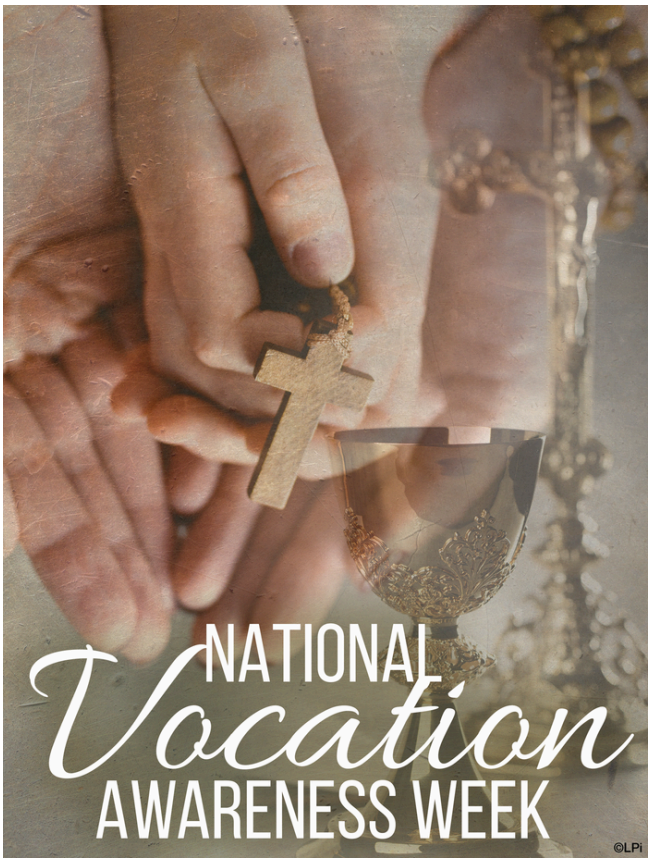

Part 1 of a Series on Funerals for Catholics in the Oshkosh area

The Catholic Church strongly recommends a Funeral Mass for every Catholic person who has died. In recent years, there have been many changes in the practice of what happens when someone dies. One of the unfortunate practices that has arisen is not having a funeral, having a “Celebration of Life” at a restaurant or tavern (sometimes at a much later date) or just having a short service at the funeral home or cemetery. None of these are what the Church suggests as good for our souls.

The Funeral Mass is the way the Church prays for one who has recently died. With families more dispersed and sometimes less connected to Church, please clearly state your desire for a Funeral Mass when you die. The service at the funeral home is meant for those circumstances when a Mass is not allowed (such as Holy Thursday and Good Friday), when a priest is not available (especially in mission areas) or when there are particular circumstances where a Mass in church may create difficulties.

All people are encouraged to come and pray at funerals, not just family and close friends. We encourage parishioners to come to any Funeral Mass to pray for the one who has died.

On November 2 (All Souls Day) we pray for those who have died. In addition, the entire month of November is set aside to remind us of our Christian duty to pray for those who have died. In the coming weeks the bulletin will have additional information regarding Catholic funerals.
