MISSION OF ST. RAPHAEL

As friends and followers of Jesus, we are devoted to fostering households and communities of discipleship through the mission and ministry of the Catholic Church.

Dear Parishioners,

This past Thursday, our St. Raphael staff team attended a Diocesan Day of Encounter along with staff and leaders from all the other parishes of our diocese. In preparation for that gathering, which was focused on the Holy Spirit, we were asked to reflect on and pray with a few questions. I thought I would share some of them with you to give you a sense of our conversation – and also because I think they are questions that could help us all continue to grow in our relationship with the Holy Spirit.

What is one word that describes my present relationship with the Holy Spirit?

Do I presently listen for the guidance of the Holy Spirit in my life during prayer? If so, what does this look like?

What fears or concerns do I have when it comes to listening to and following the Holy Spirit?

Do I see how the Holy Spirit impacts my life, work, relationships, etc.? If so, what do I notice?

Thinking and praying about how we would answer these questions is one step we can take to notice more about how we relate to the Holy Spirit. Our answers reveal a baseline from which we can grow. For example, honestly looking at our fears and concerns is a first step in bringing them to the Lord so that he can help us. Or, if we realize we don't actually pay that much attention to the Holy Spirit, that can prompt us to become more aware, asking for eyes to see how the Spirit is working with, in, and around us.

If you are interested in continuing to grow in your relationship with the Holy Spirit, I'd like to invite you to a special workshop on the afternoon of Sunday, January 17, on "Discernment 101: Discernment of Spirits according to St. Ignatius of Loyola." I've been writing on this topic in my weekly bulletin column for a few months, and this workshop will be an opportunity to go deeper. A good friend of mine, Fr. Bob Gross, who is a spiritual director and teacher of the spiritual life, will lead the workshop. Watch the bulletin for more details in the weeks ahead!

THANKS-GIVING TREE FOR OUR SISTER PARISH

This weekend the Thanks-Giving Tree for our sister parish, Holy Cross, in Jackson, KY will be on display. A portion of the donations received will be used by Sr. Amy to purchase Thanksgiving food baskets for families who will otherwise "go without." Any additional funds will be used to purchase boots, socks and mittens for the children in the Head Start program. Many of these children are the poorest of the poor.

There will be bookmarks on the tree with a child's name. Please take a bookmark from the tree and pray for that child during the Thanksgiving, Advent and Christmas seasons.

If you would like to donate (whether you take a bookmark or not), please take an envelope and return it on or before November 15, 2026. If you are unable to financially support this cause, please still take a bookmark and pray for that child.

If you have any questions, please contact Anne Glowcheski in the parish office at 920-233-8044 during normal parish office hours.

On Sunday, November 8, we welcome Alex Cortez, Colin Daniels, and Nefthany Tinoco into the Catechumenate at our 10 am Mass. Entering the Catechumenate through the Rite of Entrance is an important moment in their journey to receiving the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and First Eucharist. Officially, they are now part of the Catholic Church! Please pray for Alex, Colin, and Nefthany as they continue to grow in their relationship with God and in their understanding of our Catholic faith.

Please pray for

Put Down the Phones and Pick Up the Conversation

In today's busy world, our phones are almost always within reach. We use them to check messages, scroll through social media, watch videos, and keep up with what is happening around us. Technology can be helpful; it can also quietly take time away from something much more important: connecting with the people God has placed in our lives.

As Catholic families, we are called to love one another and be present to one another. Sometimes, the greatest gift we can give our children is not a new toy, an exciting activity, or the latest technology. It is our undivided attention.

Think about how often family members sit in the same room while everyone looks at a separate screen. We may be physically together, but are we truly spending time together? Our children need opportunities to share their thoughts, talk about their day, ask questions, laugh, and know that someone is listening. These everyday conversations help build trust, strengthen relationships, and create lasting memories.

Jesus showed us the importance of being present to others. He listened, welcomed people, asked questions, and made time for those around Him. There are some simple ways to reconnect as a family.

Make mealtimes screen-free. Turn off the TV and put phones away.

Create a phone-free hour. Choose a time each day when the whole family puts devices aside to talk, play a game, read, or enjoy an activity together.

Pray together. Begin or end the day by sharing prayer intentions, thanking God for your blessings, and praying for people who need His love.

Lead by example. Children notice our habits. When parents set healthy boundaries with technology, they teach children that relationships deserve our attention.

This week, consider making one small change: put your phone away during dinner, take a walk together without screens, or spend fifteen minutes talking before bedtime. These simple moments may seem ordinary, but they are opportunities to share love, grow closer, and recognize God's presence in our everyday lives.

Family Outreach

Dear Parishioners,

My name is David Reetz. I am a member of St. Mary Church in Winneconne. Each year I organize a fundraiser to help a family in need. This year we're gathering to show our support for Ezra Demler and his family. Ezra spent the first 119 days of his life in the hospital after being diagnosed with laryngomalacia and vocal cord paralysis, having to undergo a tracheostomy, and fighting other medical setbacks. To give you some background, this is the 17th year of the Winneconne Open for a Cause. It will be held on Saturday, November 14 at 2:30pm at Channel Tap and Lanes in Winneconne. There will be over 100 raffles of various types. All proceeds will go directly to Ezra and his family. In the past 5 years, over $125,000 has been raised for local families. If you are interested in donating in some way or have questions, you can contact me at (920)740-2213 or coari31@hotmail.com. If you'd like to make a monetary donation, you can mail a check, made out to Jake Demler, to me at 910 Elm St., Winneconne, WI 54986 or send it via Venmo to @reetzd. Thank you for your consideration and support!

Sincerely,
David Reetz

Discernment & the Holy Spirit: The Tactics of the Enemy of Our Souls - Part 1

We are nearing the end of our journey with St. Ignatius and his insights about "discernment of spirits." Before we close this column series, we have one more topic to cover over the next few weeks.

As Catholics, we believe that there is an enemy of our souls. The First Letter of St. Peter talks about him this way: "Your opponent the devil is prowling around like a roaring lion looking for [someone] to devour" (5:8). The devil seeks to twist and destroy all that is good, including us. He is clever in his tactics, but also predictable. Ignatius helps us to see some of his common tactics to derail and discourage us.

For each of the tactics that Ignatius brings to light, he offers a metaphor to help us understand what the enemy is trying to do. His first metaphor is one we might find hard to swallow in our cultural context. In his own words, he says that "the enemy acts like a woman in being weak when faced with strength and strong when faced with weakness." To understand the point he is trying to make, I'd like to suggest another image that I hope resonates better for us, but still makes his point.

When I was a kid, my family's first dog was a toy poodle, Rusty. He was adorable, and we all loved him, but he was also a yapper. Like a lot of small dogs, his bark was bigger than his bite, and he liked to make himself heard. He would rule the roost when we let him. But if he was confronted with someone (another dog – or my father!) who wouldn't tolerate his barking, he backed off and quieted down.

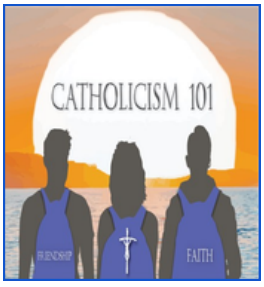

The enemy of our souls is like my family's pet poodle. He is little and weak, but he knows how to make a lot of noise. When we tolerate him, he'll walk all over us and keep on barking – and even get louder. But if he encounters strength (the strength of Jesus Christ, who has already defeated him), he will back off. As the letter of St. James tells us, "resist the devil and he will flee" (4:7).

Women of Faith Small Groups

We invite the women of St. Raphael to join us this fall for one of our Women of Faith small groups. We meet once a month, so it's not a huge commitment, but we receive a lot from this small investment of time: friendships with other women who share our faith; time to reflect, pray, and grow in our relationship with God; and inspiration from the women of the Old Testament (our current topic), just to name a few.

A Surge of the Heart:
Moving from saying our prayers to a life of prayer

Tuesday, November 17 at 6:30-7:45 pm in the Good Samaritan Hall

Therese of Lisieux called prayer "a surge of the heart" – the soul's response to the gentle pull towards communion with God. In this five-session course, we will explore the rich vision of Christian spirituality and the place of prayer within it, seeing prayer not merely as a practice but as a growing relationship with God. From this wider perspective, we will consider practical ways of praying and the challenges that often accompany the journey.

This course is for those who have ever felt confused or uncertain about prayer, and for those who want to deepen their own prayer life.

Upcoming Topic:
Nov. 17: Dealing with common obstacles in prayer

RSVP helpful, but not required: sara.scheunemann@raphael.org or 920-233-8044, ext. 228. Our guide for this series is Chris Arnold. Chris Arnold is a member of St. Raphael parish. He was formerly ordained in a different Christian Tradition and studied spiritual direction at Loyola Univeristy in Chicago. He was received into full communion with the Catholic Church last October.

Caregiver Support

Do you need emotional or spiritual support as a caregiver? St. Raphael hosts a support group. Our next meeting will be Thursday, November 12 at 10 am in St. Martin's Chapel at St. Raphael Church. If interested or if you have questions, please contact Kay Sternat at 920-203-2790. Feel free to just attend.

Burying the Dead: Some reflections on Catholic Funerals

The Funeral Visitation and Eulogies

Part 2 of a Series on Funerals for Catholics in the Oshkosh area

The Church encourages the community to gather after someone has died for a period of visitation and prayer. This is meant to be separate from the Funeral Mass. In recent years, most funerals have put these two separate things together, with an hour or two of visitation immediately followed by the Funeral Mass. This is not what the Church suggests. The Church suggests a separate time of visitation with a prayer service. It is this time of visitation and prayer that is the proper time for pictures, sharing of memories and eulogies. Please consider a period of visitation the evening before the Funeral Mass. This may be done at the funeral home or another location.

When visitation occurs immediately prior to the Funeral Mass, our Oshkosh area parishes are asking that the visitation end 15 minutes prior to the beginning of the Funeral Mass. This allows the family a few minutes to take a break, have a time of prayer and prepare for the Funeral Mass. This reminds people not to come at the end of the visitation and expect to greet the family before the Mass.
