MISSION OF ST. RAPHAEL

As friends and followers of Jesus, we are devoted to fostering households and communities of discipleship through the mission and ministry of the Catholic Church.

Dear Parishioners,

It is hard to believe that it is mid-November. Time keeps flying! Our scripture readings this time of year remind us of that. Someday our time on earth will end. In the meantime, we are asked to live with the end in mind. As Christians we live remembering that we live in light of eternity. Someday Jesus will come again. All of us one day will experience our last day on earth. Both those realities call us to live with purpose and meaning in light of our faith.

Last week the gospel parable reminded us to be ready at all times. Today Jesus tells us the parable of the talents. We are each given gifts and talents. At the end, we will be asked what we did with those gifts and talents. Did we use them for the good of the kingdom?

I invite you to take this time to reflect on your use of the gifts and resources you have been given. Would someone notice that our Christian faith is the most important thing in your life? We make investments in things that are important to us. What is your investment?

There are so many ways to use our talents. There are many opportunities in the community. Just a few are to serve at Father Carr's Place 2B, to sort food at the Oshkosh Area Community Pantry or to assist at the St. Vincent de Paul Store.

Our parish community also is based on the generosity of our parishioners. We rely on many, many people who help in ways too many to list here. Some needs include snow removal on Saturdays and Sundays during winter.

There is also baking cookies or bars for parish events and socials, straightening the missalettes after Mass, being a greeter for Mass or a hospitality minister during a funeral visitation, serving as a substitute catechist for religious education, volunteering at Lourdes Academy, being an altar server, bringing flowers to the homebound for Christmas and Easter, pruning shrubs on our parish grounds, helping set up rooms for events, and many more. You can find more ways to assist on our website at raphael.org/volunteer. Please call the parish office to let us know how you may be interested in helping.

Your ongoing financial support is also so helpful. How long has it been since you have increased your level of giving? Now may be a good time to pray about that.

I am grateful that so many people continue to share their time and talents with our parish community and the community beyond. That is truly a sign of God's kingdom present in our midst.

Gratefully,
Fr Tom

THANKS-GIVING TREE FOR OUR SISTER PARISH

This weekend the Thanks-Giving Tree for our sister parish, Holy Cross, in Jackson, KY will be on display. A portion of the donations received will be used by Sr. Amy to purchase Thanksgiving food baskets for families who will otherwise "go without." Any additional funds will be used to purchase boots, socks and mittens for the children in the Head Start program. Many of these children are the poorest of the poor.

There will be bookmarks on the tree with a child's name. Please take a bookmark from the tree and pray for that child during the Thanksgiving, Advent and Christmas seasons.

If you would like to donate (whether you take a bookmark or not), please take an envelope and return it on or before November 22, 2026. If you are unable to financially support this cause, please still take a bookmark and pray for that child.

If you have any questions, please contact Anne Glowcheski in the parish office at 920-233-8044 during normal parish office hours.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The Heavenly Hero for the month of November is St. Martin De Porres.

St. Martin was known for his love for animals. In honor of him, have animal crackers as an afterschool snack one day this week. Before you eat your snack, say the prayer below:

Gentle St Martin, you loved the animals God gives to us in the wonders of creation. Watch over the animals our loving Father has created. Help us to always treat animals with kindness.

May we always, like you, attend our daily tasks with gratitude and with ever growing love for God and for one another, and may we know the joy of the companionship we can have with all the creatures God fashioned by His own hands. We make this and all our prayers through Christ Our Lord. Amen

Upcoming Faith Formation Events:

- November 22, 3-5pm: Families of Faith
- November 23-25: NO WEEKLY class sessions for grades 1-Confirmation
- December 7: Confirmation Service Experience at Fr. Carr's Place 2B (6:30-8:00 pm)
- December 8/9: No regular class sessions for grades 1-10: All Families attend Immaculate Conception Mass on December 8 at 6:00 pm.

Happy Thanksgiving!

First Reconciliation Retreat

On November 7/8, families preparing their children for First Reconciliation participated in a retreat focused on how when we turn away from sin and receive the sacrament of reconciliation, Jesus' light shines brightly in us! A special thanks to the following parishioners who volunteered to help with the retreat.

You are a blessing:

- Josh Adrians (Families of Faith Catechist)
- Andrew Adrians (youth volunteer)
- Kathy Baehman (Family Outreach Coordinator)
- Lois Reischl (2nd grade catechist)
- Hunter Robbins (youth volunteer)

Our middle schoolers just performed their annual fall musical. This year, the students delighted guests with The Little Mermaid Junior. Having just taken in my first Lourdes musical, my first takeaway was that our middle schoolers demonstrate so much talent! The voices, acting, costumes, and memorization were all excellent! The second and much larger takeaway was from their Friday school matinee. The courage these kids displayed was inspiring. At their age, it is awfully hard to stand out in front of their peers. The culture Lourdes continues to develop is one in which our students know how wonderfully they are made, and this year's musical certainly celebrated that! Bravo!

Making Sunday Different from the Rest of the Week

In our busy world, it can be difficult to slow down. Between work, school, household chores, errands, and activities, our weeks can feel like one long to-do list. Before we know it, it's Sunday, and we find ourselves rushing through the day just like any other day. But God invites us to make Sunday something special, a day of rest, reconnect, and renew our relationship with Him.

For Catholics, Sunday is a day to gather as a parish family at Mass, receive Jesus in the Eucharist, and remember that our lives are about more than getting things done. Sunday gives us an opportunity to pause, thank God for His blessings, and place Him at the center of our lives.

How can we make Sunday different from the rest of the week?

Begin with Mass. Make Sunday Mass the heart of your family's day. Attend together, pray together, and talk about something you heard in the readings or homily.

Put away distractions. Consider setting aside sometime away from phones, television, and other screens.

Make room for rest and joy. Sunday does not need to be filled with elaborate plans. Share a family meal, visit a loved one, enjoy the outdoors, or spend a quiet moment in prayer.

Prepare your hearts for the week ahead. Before Sunday ends, pray together for the days to come. Ask God to guide your decisions, bless your family, and help you recognize opportunities to serve others.

As we honor the Lord's Day, may our Sundays be a weekly reminder that we belong to God and that His love is at the center of our lives! What is one small thing we can do this Sunday to make it more peaceful, prayerful, and different from the rest of the week?

New Roof - Our church building is in need of a new roof. The Parish Council and Finance Council approved the expenditure of $237,000 for the roof and related items. We recieved diocesan approval, which was necessary due to the amount of money involved. The roof is scheduled to be replaced in spring 2027.

A parish family has made a very generous donation which will cover the cost of the roof. We are deeply grateful for this donation.

We are also in discussion regarding the need for replacement of our HVAC system for the church itself. We will keep the parish informed as this progresses. We do have money in our investments that can be used for this purpose. We will also appreciate continued donations for Facility Improvements. There is a monthly envelope in the envelope packet and an option for online giving at raphael.org/give for this purpose.

Thank you for your ongoing generosity!

Discernment & the Holy Spirit: The Tactics of the Enemy of Our Souls - Part 2

Last week, we looked at one common tactic of our spiritual enemy, the devil. Although the devil is ultimately weak before the power of Jesus Christ, he does his best to intimidate us by making a lot of spiritual noise. St. Ignatius reminds us that if we resist the devil and his temptations, he will flee (James 4:7).

Next, Ignatius unmasks a second common tactic of the enemy, again using a metaphor to help us understand. In this metaphor, the devil is like a false lover who "makes dishonorable advances to a daughter of a good father or a wife of a good husband." He seeks to persuade her to keep his advances secret, knowing that if he is found out, the father or husband will quickly put an end to his deceitful schemes.

In the same way, the devil whispers in our ears to keep what is happening a secret. He tries to persuade us that if we shared our struggle with someone, that person would never understand, be shocked, or even condemn us. He wants us to hide the thoughts and doubts that discourage us. His goal is to get us to bear our burdens alone.

When we are tempted to hide, Ignatius encourages us to bring the thoughts and struggles that are weighing us down into the light. We do well to share them with a trusted spiritual person, like a good confessor or another faithful person who loves the Lord and is experienced with the challenges of the spiritual life and the deceits of the enemy.

While it is certainly good to bring our hidden sins into the light through the Sacrament of Reconciliation, here Ignatius is focused on secret thoughts – the lies the enemy whispers in our minds that seem so very true. "You are wasting your time trying to pray," "you are too broken to do that good thing God is inviting you to," "you will never be able to overcome that bad habit," "your sins have disqualified you from doing anything good." These are just a few examples of the secret thoughts that the enemy can use to disable us.

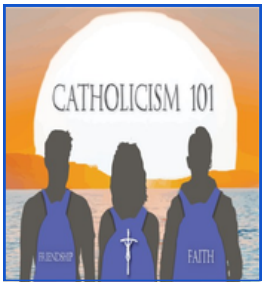

When we notice ourselves getting stuck on the same negative thoughts, we may also discover that we are being tempted to keep them secret. If we resist this temptation and share what we are thinking with a trusted spiritual person, very often the simple act of speaking it aloud is enough to set us free. At the very least, it is a powerful first step toward rejecting the lies of the enemy and moving toward God's truth.

In the love of Jesus,

Women of Faith Small Groups

We invite the women of St. Raphael to join us this fall for one of our Women of Faith small groups. We meet once a month, so it's not a huge commitment, but we receive a lot from this small investment of time: friendships with other women who share our faith; time to reflect, pray, and grow in our relationship with God; and inspiration from the women of the Old Testament (our current topic), just to name a few.

Fall is a great time for a new beginning. We hope you will join us!

A Surge of the Heart:
Moving from saying our prayers to a life of prayer

Tuesday, November 17 at 6:30-7:45 pm in the Good Samaritan Hall

Therese of Lisieux called prayer "a surge of the heart" – the soul's response to the gentle pull towards communion with God. In this five-session course, we will explore the rich vision of Christian spirituality and the place of prayer within it, seeing prayer not merely as a practice but as a growing relationship with God. From this wider perspective, we will consider practical ways of praying and the challenges that often accompany the journey.

This course is for those who have ever felt confused or uncertain about prayer, and for those who want to deepen their own prayer life.

Hospital Visits

Is a loved one in the hospital and would like a visit? Please call the parish office at 920-233-8044 and let us know so we can arrange for one of the priests to come visit! If a loved one is at Mercy, we only know that if you inform us.

Discernment 101 Workshop:
Discernment of Spirits
according to St. Ignatius of Loyola
With Fr. Bob Gross
Sunday, January 17, 2027
2-5 pm
Good Samaritan Hall

On any given day, there is a lot happening inside us – joy, peace, delight, anger, fear, frustration, discouragement, and more thoughts than we can count. How can we know when the Holy Spirit is working within all this and is the source of inspirations we receive? When should we suspect that it might be another, unholy spirit seeking to influence us? And how are we to respond?

If you have ever asked any of these questions or wondered what exactly "discernment of spirits" is, this workshop is for you. Fr. Bob Gross, an experienced spiritual director from the Archdiocese of Dubuque, will be our guide. Fr. Gross is gifted at making the wisdom of our Catholic spiritual tradition accessible to everyone.

Please RSVP to sara.scheunemann@raphael.org or 920-233-8044, ext. 228. Walk-ins are also welcome.

Advent Taize Service
Tuesday, December 1, 6:30-7:30 pm at St. Raphael Church Sanctuary
Childcare provided in the nursery

Join us for this peaceful, contemplative evening of prayer. Taize worship creates a meditative space for rest and reflection.

We will sing several simple songs slowly and meditatively, repeating simple refrains in a way that brings greater peace to our souls. We'll listen to Scripture with space for silence to ponder Jesus' call to each one of us to come and rest with him this Advent season.

Invite a friend! If you have attended one of our Taize Services in the past and were blessed by it, please spread the word and invite others, including your non-Catholic friends! Taize worship has its origins in an ecumenical community in France, and its simple, peaceful format helps all people find a greater connection with God.

Burying the Dead: Some reflections on Catholic Funerals

Cremation

Part 3 of a Series on Funerals for Catholics in the Oshkosh area

Although cremation is now permitted by the Church, it does not enjoy the same value as burial of the body. The Church clearly prefers and urges that the body of the deceased be present for the funeral rites, since the presence of the human body better expresses the values which the Church affirms in those rites. (Order of Christian Funerals #413) Both Fiss & Bills Poklasny and Konrad Behlman Funeral Homes have a casket available for those who will be cremated after the Funeral Mass.

If it is not possible for the body to be present for the Funeral Mass, the cremated remains of a body should be treated with the same respect given to the human body from which they came. This includes the use of a worthy vessel to contain the ashes, the manner in which they are carried, the care and attention to appropriate placement and transport, and the final disposition. The cremated remains should be buried in a grave or entombed in a mausoleum or columbarium. The practice of scattering the ashes or keeping cremated remains in the home of a relative or friend are not the reverent disposition that the Church requires. The ashes should remain intact, not divided or placed in jewelry.

KNIGHTS IN ACTION

Charity Raffle

The Wisconsin State Council of the Knights of Columbus is currently selling tickets for its 2026 Charity Raffle. The prize list consists of $124,000 being paid to one hundred winners with a first place prize of $50,000. The second prize is $25,000 or a 2027 Harley Davidson motorcycle. The 3rd through 100th prize is $500 each. The drawing will take place at the State Convention on Saturday, May 15th, 2027, 7:15pm at the Marriot Hotel Madison West in Middleton. Tickets are $5.00 each.

The proceeds from this raffle are used to ease financial burdens and to restore hope to families and victims of accidents and illness. This past year, the Knights made charitable donations from their local Councils charity fund to needy persons in their communities in an amount in excess of $320,000. In addition, the State Council issued grants to needy families throughout Wisconsin in excess of $175,000. That totaled over nearly $500,000.

Tickets can be purchased through any Knights member or at the Burrito Breakfast now through April of next tear.

Burrito Sunday

The November Burrito Sunday wil be on Sunday, November 15. The proceeds will go to support the Religious Education Program at St. Raphael.
