This Week at Grace

Alleluias Continue at Grace

Dear Grace,

Christ the Lord is Risen Today, Alleluia!

I've been singing Alleluia all week in gratitude for a beautiful Easter morning at Grace. THANK YOU to everyone who made the morning so glorious: from those who prepared and brought food for the brunch to the many who volunteered with the Easter Egg Hunt, to the children and adults who sang, and for bringing your friends and family and worshipping with great joy. Special thanks to Andy, Sue and Voices of Grace for the beautiful music, to Calissa for organizing all the activities for so many children, and to Robby for the magnificent Easter garden.

The best news is, Easter is not one day, but FIFTY days. So, we have many more days to sing our alleluias and offer our gifts in service of God's glory.

This Sunday will be another celebration of God's gifts offered so generously at Grace church. April 3rd is Sue Goddard and Andy Singletary's last Sunday on music staff at Grace. We will honor their ministries among us in worship and then with a reception to follow.

Spread the word and invite those you know who have been touched by Sue and Andy's gifts over the years. It will be another Sunday of saying and singing, "Alleluia!" as we
