

Faithful Innovations

The churches of the future will be adaptive learning communities, that learn from “failing fast and flipping.”

The church of the future will be agile and engaged in constant experimentation, innovation, and evaluation. Rostered leaders of the Northwest Synod of Wisconsin are invited to come together for a midwinter break and a time of learning and conversation about how God might be calling us to faithfully explore ministry in new and creative ways.

Joining us for this event will be Dwight Zscheile, an Episcopal priest, associate professor of congregational mission and leadership at Luther Seminary in St. Paul, Minnesota, and consultant with The Missional Network. He also serves part-time as associate priest at St. Matthew's Episcopal Church in St. Paul. He is author of The Agile Church: Spirit-Led Innovation in an Uncertain Age (Morehouse Publishing, 2014)

A graduate of Stanford University (BA), Yale University (MDiv) and Luther Seminary (PhD, Congregational Mission and Leadership), he previously served congregations in Virginia and Connecticut.

Dwight's experience growing up in a secular home in California has shaped his commitment to helping the church cultivate Christian community with new populations and generations in today's changing world.
