Students also participate in crafts, science and math activities.

“Lettercize” Ages 3-Kindergarten

Monday 12:30-3:00 $75/m

This class is offered to children who are at least 3-5-years-old and potty trained by September 30th. Our enhancement program, offering the Get Set for School curriculum from Handwriting Without Tears, will introduce the children to kindergarten concepts and experiences, with small group instruction through playing games, singing songs, participating in arts and craft projects, and writing/copying in their own journals. The children will be exposed to phonemic awareness and will learn to hear the distinct sounds contained in words. The class will conclude with children enjoying some exercise and movement fun each day.

“Literacy” Ages 3-Kindergarten

Friday 12:30-3:00 $75/m

This class is offered to children who are at least 3-5-years-old and potty trained by September 30th. Children explore a popular piece of children’s literature through process and product art, music and movement, puppetry, dramatic play, outside related activities, or cooking. Components of the Handwriting Without Tears program are incorporated into the program. Children may use chalkboards or modeling clay to learn about letter shapes, they may also sing songs that help to reinforce what they are learning to do physically with their hands. Children learn about the parts of a book, concepts about print, listening, new words, and word and concept connections.

If required minimum class sizes are not met, then groups may be combined to form a multi-age classroom.
