

Baptism is God's work of welcoming people of all ages into the Christian family.

In baptism we are united to Jesus and share in his life and the promise of resurrection.

To schedule a baptism, please call the Senior Pastor's office at 719.632.8836

The pastor will find a time to sit down with you for teaching and preparation.

When you're ready, please complete this information form and bring it with you when you visit with the pastor.

Note: Baptisms should be done during one of the regular worship services on Saturday or Sunday. Each spring, we wait until the Easter Vigil, (the Saturday before Easter), to do baptisms. It is a meaningful time for baptisms and we encourage you to consider this date. The pastor you request will work with you on finding an appropriate date. All Baptismal candidates or parents of children being baptized are required to receive instruction from a pastor prior to the baptism.*
