

Pam Stockdale – Bio and Press Release

Pam Stockdale is a dynamic speaker/teacher who is gifted with the ability to not only speak from a transparent life but will call you to one as well. LAM is a mission organization with outreaches in many parts of Latin America. Pam has traveled extensively throughout the U.S. and many parts of Latin America with a strong focus on Mexico. She is one of the directors of Latin American Ministry. There are speakers you can listen to, others you can't listen to and some you must listen to. Pam is the latter. A communicator at any level, whether to ladies, men or mixed Pam will make you laugh and cry as she tells you about her personal pursuit of God.

For more than 34 years she has served as, evangelist, teacher, pastor, and missionary. She is a resource from whom you can draw wisdom and practical understanding of the Word. Her down to earth style of teaching and mixture of funny personal antidotes are sure to inspire you and draw you into a closer walk with God.

Pam resides in Dover, TN and is married to Jim Stockdale and has two daughters, Kristen and Brittney
