The second trip is to Japan and working alongside Pastor Hara and Yumiko focusing on ministry in the church and community as well as ministering to moms and their children. The time frame for this trip is the end of July and beginning of August 2026.

There will be a general informational meeting about both trips TODAY in the Parlor immediately after the worship service for anyone interested in either trip. The meeting will last for about 20 minutes and we'll review costs and commitments. Parents are welcome to attend. If you have any questions prior to our meeting, please contact Pastor Mike.
