Last Week, 2 of the conservatory's strings faculty blessed us with an offertory and beautiful accompaniment to the congregational singing. I might be biased, but I loved it. What you may not know is that 3 of ZCM's faculty are already a regular part of worship at CCC: Andrew Johnson lends a rich, experienced voice to the choir's tenor section, Jeff Langley is a regular at the drum set, and Donna Poucher—once ZCM's director—faithfully accompanies the choir and adds a graceful piano flourish to any service she is part of. Indeed, many of the musicians who help lead worship at CCC were once faculty or students of ZCM. When we bring our musical gifts before the Lord, it is fitting that we do so with excellence. The conservatory has long been a place where those gifts are strengthened for service, and we are excited to see more of you becoming part of it.
