

Dr. Ayleen Pinera-Llano

Dr. Ayleen Pinera-Llano was born and raised in Miami, Florida. She attended the University of Miami for undergraduate studies and then received her medical degree from the University Of Miami Miller School Of Medicine in 1995. She went on to do her Pediatric Residency at the University of Miami/Jackson Memorial Hospital.

Immediately after completing her residency in 1998, Dr. Pinera-Llano joined Kings Bay Pediatrics and was in practice for 6 years. After the birth of her third child, she decided to take time off and raise her children. She was a “stay-at-home” for two years and then returned as a part-time Pediatrician at a local practice. Dr. Pinera-Llano returns to Kings Bay Pediatrics and is eager to rejoin her colleagues. She is Board Certified in Pediatrics and a Fellow of the American Academy of Pediatrics.

Dr. Pinera-Llano is married and has three children. She is very involved with the Down Syndrome community, serving as Vice President of the Down Syndrome Association of Miami. She has a particular interest in caring for children and adolescents with special needs. Dr. Pinera-Llano enjoys spending time outdoors and travelling with her family.
