A reminder that from this weekend forward, we will be kneeling after the Lamb of God and after the reception of communion. Please continue to sing the communion song until communion is completed. It is our hope that this practice will create a more uniform and reverent time of prayer and reflection.

Due to the funeral for Madalyn Furno, we will not have Beta this week.

Our next meeting will be on Monday, June 1 @ 5:30pm in the meeting room at church. We will be discussing the first three chapters of the book "Save Your Parish" which you received at the last meeting.

Eucharistic Procession

On Sunday, June 7 we will celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi). Immediately following the 9am Mass, a Eucharistic Procession will take place from church to Central Park and back. The Eucharistic procession acts as a public proclamation of our Catholic belief in the Real Presence of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. It also emphasizes the move from Mass to mission – that the Eucharistic celebration sends the faith community into the world to engage in the ministry of evangelization. Christ accompanies us on our pilgrimage of faith. We proclaim Him and the Gospel message as our life, hope, and peace. Please plan to join this solemn procession if you can walk this short route.

With the celebration of Pentecost today, we conclude the celebration of the Easter Season which has continued for 50 days. When Jesus left the earth in bodily form, the disciples were saddened. Yet Jesus told them to wait and that they would receive the Holy Spirit. Today we rejoice that we are not left alone. Jesus remains with us in the Holy Spirit and in the Eucharist. While we don't have Jesus present in the same way as the early disciples did, the Holy Spirit never leaves us. We need only call on the Holy Spirit to guide us, enlighten us, and help us through whatever life brings our way. Nothing is too big or too small for the Holy Spirit. It is a conversation worth having!

Heavenly Father, we lift up our youth as they prepare to be your hands and feet. Fill them with Your Holy Spirit, giving them wisdom to serve and courage to share Your love. We pray they return changed, with a deeper faith and a passion for Your work. In Jesus' name, Amen.
