I was getting ahead of myself a bit last weekend with my commentary, as I was looking ahead to today's Gospel rather than the one regarding the "narrow gate" that we heard last Sunday. I guess I couldn't wait to comment on how this parish family is so concerned with one another that I don't see people seeking places of honor; in fact, just the opposite. So, I now get a second Sunday to ponder this Gospel message. If you were confused by my comments last week, you were not alone. We have much to celebrate, and as a community we continually reach out to one another in support. We grow and learn from each other, and then hopefully take what we have learned and share with others. As we celebrate our labors this weekend and turn the corner on a new month and Season, watch for new opportunities to participate in building community and being Christ for one another.

Thank You!

Saint Peter parishioners are remarkably generous. Sharing a portion of our income with the Church is a sign everything belongs to God and we dedicate our "first fruits" to the work of the kingdom of Christ. Thank you so much for your faith and generosity.
