Do you have questions about our Faith, or would you just like to grow deeper in your understanding? Join Fr. Jim for an informal small group discussion this Tuesday, October 27 @ 10:00am in the meeting room at church. Bring any questions you may have.

FINANCE COUNCIL

Our next meeting will be this Monday, October 26 @ 5:30pm in the meeting room at church. We will be reviewing Q1 results for our new fiscal year

Thanks to those who have helped in some way with our Blessing Box over the past weeks, either with a financial donation, dropping off food items, or helping to fill bags with meals. If you have a few minutes during regular office hours, stop by and help assemble a few meals. The process is quick, easy and it helps keep our Blessing Box going.

Please email Linda (linda@loudonvillecatholic.org) a list of friends and family members who have died in the past year that you would like to have remembered in our bulletin during November. If you have the date of their death, please also include that information.

Starting November 2nd, Linda will begin accepting Mass intention requests for 2027. Please visit the office with a list of the names you would like to include. A $10 stipend is suggested per Mass, and you may include up to two names per intention. While we will make every effort to accommodate your preferred dates, availability cannot be guaranteed. Please note that requests are limited to two weekend Masses per person or family, weekdays are not limited this year.

Ken's Corner

When Jesus was asked which commandment was the greatest, he did not hesitate. He offered that we must first serve, worship and honor God, but then quickly added a second one that was "like" the first. When Jesus used the word "like" it was a much stronger link than we ordinarily would give to the word. Jesus was essentially saying that we cannot truly love God if we don't genuinely show concern for our neighbor. Likewise, if we do not acknowledge God as most important in our lives, then it will be difficult to afford that concern to our neighbor. Love here is also not the sentimental, feeling based notion, that often gets attached to the word, but a "willing the good of the other". We don't necessarily have to like someone to love them. Something to think about before we attempt to figure out the remaining commandments. If we get the first two right, chances are very good that we will do fine with the remainder.

Thank You

The generosity of our Saint Peter parishioners is truly remarkable. By sharing a portion of our income with the Church, we demonstrate that all we have belongs to God, allowing us to dedicate our "first fruits" to the work of Christ's kingdom. Thank you for your continued faith and support.

Respect Life Month

Every human life retains its God-given dignity amid suffering, illness, and vulnerability. This week invites us to learn about end-of-life care and assisted suicide, pray for those who are suffering or approaching death, accompany them and their families with compassion, and advocate for care that protects life and upholds human dignity until natural death.

Divine Mercy

As you may know, the Divine Mercy group assembles bags to be handed out to the homeless. Those bags are available for anyone to take on their travels and are located in the black box at the entrance to the church by the steps to the choir loft. To assemble more bags, they are in need of a few donations. Travel size toothpaste, travel rain ponchos, small packets of tissues, and individual packets of Wet Ones. Donations can be placed in the same black box as the bags.
