WELCOME

On behalf of the entire St. Peter Catholic Parish Community, we welcome you! Whether you are a parishioner, vacationer, or seeking a parish to call home, we hope that we can provide you with any desired information and spiritual support while you are here.

HURRICANE RELIEF COLLECTION

The Catholic Diocese of Cleveland and dioceses across the county have been asked by the leadership of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops to have a voluntary special collection on behalf of the people who have been impacted by Hurricane Ida which made landfall in the Gulf Coast and moved inland as a tropical storm, causing damage across several states. As a result, lives have been lost and many Church properties, along with homes and businesses, have been severely damaged or destroyed.

This special collection will take place the weekend of September 18-19, 2021.

Checks for this collection should note in the memo that they are for Hurricane Relief and be made payable to St. Peter Church.

MISSION STATEMENT

We, the people of St. Peter Church are a community built on Jesus Christ, our foundation, rooted in the Gospel, and distinguished by a spirit of welcome and belonging. Therefore, we strive to worship joyfully, serve gladly, and be stewards of God's gifts. We nurture spiritual growth through faith formation and education. We support one another, reach out to all, spread the Gospel, and practice our faith in our daily lives.

Bulletin Deadline: Tuesday noon. Please read inside bulletin for any changes from above.

Jesus asked them,
“BUT WHO DO YOU SAY THAT I AM?”
 Peter said to him in reply,
“YOU ARE THE CHRIST.”

Mark 8:29

TODAY'S READINGS

First reading — The Lord GOD is my help; who will prove me wrong? (Isaiah 50:5-9a).

Psalm — I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living (Psalm 116).

Second Reading — Faith, if it does not have works, is dead (James 2:14-18).

Gospel — Jesus asked his disciples, “Who do you say that I am?” (Mark 8:27-35).

FEAST OF FAITH

Offering and Intercessions

In this holy moment—with the consecrated bread and wine, the Body and Blood of Christ, upon the altar—we pray for a share in the fruits of Christ’s sacrifice. We offer to God what God has given to us, and we intercede for the Church and the world. We pray for the pope and for all the bishops, and we mention the bishop of our local church by name. We pray for the clergy and for all the people of God. We pray in a special way for those who have died. And we pray for ourselves, that one day, with Mary and all the saints, we may come to that place where Jesus already reigns. These prayers of intercession, like the General Intercessions earlier in the Mass, broaden our focus and remind us that the Eucharist is offered not just for those gathered, but for the salvation of the entire world. The Eucharistic Prayer leads us from an intense focus on Christ, present in the consecrated host in the hands of the priest, to a loving sweep of prayer that embraces the world. —Corinna Laughlin, Copyright © J. IT’S ALL ABOUT CONTROL

From toddlerhood to old age, we grow in mastery of our own lives, our bodies, and our destiny. This mastery is hard won, and we don’t let go of autonomy easily. Much of this self-mastery involves the avoidance of pain or discomfort, so when we hear things like “take up your cross” and “lose your life,” we tend to resist the message. James says that faith without works is dead. Ouch! That is really a direct message! One way to look at this, as well as the part about losing our life to find it, is that faith is a process of more and more openness to God’s direction of our lives. It is very hard for us to give up control, but perhaps what we are being asked to do is not to become passive and babyish, but to allow God to direct where our self-mastery will lead and what it will accomplish. We are asked to relinquish the need to control the results of our efforts; to risk, as Jesus did, the loss of everything we are working to achieve. We are asked to let God take the lead and to control the results, even though we may never see those results. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co

Cleveland Catholic Women’s Conference

All women are invited to the third annual Cleveland Catholic Women’s Conference, Saturday, October 9th at the Hilton Garden Inn and Conference Center in Mayfield, Ohio. Hear from our speakers as they invite us to trust in God’s will for our lives and His Divine Mercy. The day will also include Mass with Bishop Malesic, and opportunities for prayer, confession, Eucharistic adoration, and forming friendships with other women of faith. Visit www.cleatholicwomen.org to register or for more information.

Fair Parking

The community of St. Peter will be working together to park cars for the upcoming Loudonville Street Fair! The dates are from Tuesday October 5 through Saturday October 9, 2021. A team has been assembled to lead this event and the funds will be used for parish programs. Volunteers are needed. To sign up for one or more of the two-hour shifts or if you have any questions please call Chuck Henley at (419) 606-5270. Sign-ups will also be held after the Masses during September. We hope many of our parish family will want to volunteer, as many hands makes for light work!

Thank you!!!

Thank you to our Parish family for all the prayers, cards and well wishes I've received during my surgery and recovery. I am so thankful to have had this love and support and know my recovery has been blessed by it.

Most sincerely,
