AFCM YOUTH / CHAPERONE GUIDELINES

- I will be sure to follow all guidelines for this event, realizing that failure to do so will result in disciplinary action, including the possibility of being sent home at my own expense.
- I will be nice: respecting other participants and leaders and their property. I will take care of the facilities and property we are using, including helping clean up during and after the event. Get along with everyone or you ruin everyone's trip!
- If damage is done to any property during one of our events (unless it is from an accident), the person(s) causing the damage will be expected to pay for any repairs or replacement.
- I will be in my own room/cabin by lights out and will never be in the sleeping areas of the opposite sex for any reason.
- I will not be alone with a member of the opposite sex during the event and if I am in a relationship, I will save my affection for after the event.
- I will be at all scheduled activities unless I have made arrangements in advance or at registration with the directors of the event. I will not drive any vehicle during the event unless arranged with the directors.
- I will be off my cell phone/internet for personal reasons during any scheduled activity.
- I will be sure to portray this event, myself, and others in positive, good taste and Christian character in all social media related to this event.
- I will be careful to make sure that what I wear during AFCM events portrays modesty. This includes what is printed on my clothing. During events that involve swimming, girls are expected to wear a modest, one-piece swimsuit.
- I will be sure to list any prescription drugs I take on my registration form and also inform the directors at registration.
- I will not be in possession or use of any tobacco products, e-cigarettes, vaporizers (etc.), non-prescription drugs, alcohol, knives, firearms, fireworks, or lighters.
- I realize that photos and videos of my child and their name may be used in promoting this or other events.

Digital signatures of PARTICIPANT and PARENT/LEGAL GUARDIAN are required at online registration.
