KENTUCKY ROAD | FEBRUARY 2026

February is well-known for two things: chicken nuggets and ice cream... Just kidding. We know the answer: the Super Bowl and Valentine's Day. One is about the "best of the best" playing a game to win a prize of adoration, and the other is the Super Bowl. Both ironically are about doing your best to impress someone else. The Super Bowl is a big hullabaloo about two teams that have performed well over a season and are now trying to win a big ring and the prestige of being the victors. On Valentine's Day, we are spending time with our significant other and impressing them by showing care and being romantic by splurging for a night and getting our significant other a gift to let them know that we care about them.

There is a love that is present in both things. We love our team and cheer them on if they make it. We love to see our team there.

We love to take time and spend that time with our significant other and doting on them. We love our significant other and want them to know that they are important to us. Love is present in both situations, although it may be different.

In marriage ceremonies, 1 Corinthians 13 is often used. Why? Because we find out that love is one of the most powerful and moving things that happens in our lives. God loved us enough to send a part of Himself to die for us and take our place.

What will we do because of our love for a team? For our significant other? For the Lord?

I want to leave you with 1 Corinthians 13 and ask you to evaluate this: does your life for the Lord transform things in your life?

1 Corinthians 13:1 "If I speak in the tongues of men or of angels, but do not have love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. 2 If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. 3 If I give all I possess to the poor and give over my body to hardship that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing.

4 Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. 5 It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. 6 Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. 7 It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

8 Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away. 9 For we know in part and we prophesy in part, 10 but when completeness comes, what is in part disappears. 11 When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put the ways of childhood behind me. 12 For now we see only a reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known.

13 And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love."
