

Artist David Stultz

was commissioned by Christy and David Cooper to paint their historic and architecturally classic churches –

First Cumberland Presbyterian Church

and

First Presbyterian Church.

He has done a masterful job!

The Coopers are happy to share these masterpieces!

If you would like to order a print for your home or a gift for a friend or loved one or to give as an easy yet meaningful Christmas present, call David Cooper at 779-7380. Orders will be taken through November 30. Payment must be in hand by that date.

Prints will be produced immediately thereafter and should be available in the Friendship Class room by December 6. No mailing.

There is no profit in this offering. All proceeds above expenses will be split between the organ funds at the two churches.

David Stultz is a competition-winning organist who has played many times on First Cumberland's Rufatti/Allen organ and First Presbyterian's Moller organ. They are two of his favorites. David is a senior organ major at the University of Tennessee-Knoxville, looking toward graduate school next autumn.
