

THE VOICE OF IMMANUEL

March 2019

“Let love be genuine. Abhor what is evil; hold fast to what is good. Love one another with brotherly affection. Outdo one another in showing honor. Do not be slothful in zeal, be fervent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in tribulation, be constant in prayer.” Romans 12:9-12
All of us can pray. But some have gifts of putting thoughts and words together that are superior to others. We can use their words to express our prayers. ST BASIL THE GREAT (329-379) had such gifts. Use his prayer often to pray on behalf of Immanuel.

Remember, O Lord, this congregation present, and those who are absent with good cause; have mercy upon them, and upon us, according to the multitude of Thy loving-kindness; fill their garners with good things; preserve their marriages in peace and love; take care of their little ones; lead their youth; give strength to the aged; comfort the timid and afraid; bring home the scattered, restore those who have erred; and unite them all in thy holy catholic and apostolic Church. Succor those who are vexed with unclean spirits; go with all travelers by sea or land; protect the widow, shelter the orphan, deliver those in the mines; and those in exile; those in prison, distress or poverty, or any kind of trouble. Remember all who stand in need of Thy pity; those that love us; those that hate us; those who desire our prayers, unworthy though we be to offer them to Thee. Remember, O Lord, all Thy people, and pour upon them an abundance of Thy goodness, granting all their prayers unto salvation. All those whom we have not remembered through ignorance or forgetfulness, or through the multitude of their names, do Thou Thyself call to mind, O God, who knowest the name of each even from their mother's womb. For Thou, O Lord, art the Helper of the helpless; the Hope of the homeless, the Savior of the tempest-tossed, the Harbor of the voyager, and the Physician of the sick. Be Thou all things to all Thy children; for Thou knowest them all, their petitions, their dwellings, and their minds. Amen.

NEWSLETTER DEADLINE

The newsletter deadline is March 15th.

Disciples of the Cross

In-home Group Study

Written as an introduction for those who are new to the subject of intentional discipleship, or are engaging in a congregational program in this area, Disciples of the Cross series is intended to lay the groundwork for the exploration of what it means to be an active follower of Jesus Christ and how that is reflected in our personal life and ministry. This series approaches the subject from an intentionally Lutheran theological perspective, emphasizing a sacramental theology of the cross, the distinction of law and gospel, and an understanding of the Christian believer as one who is both saint and sinner.

“Part 1: Who We Are – An Introduction to the Theology of Discipleship” is a six-session course which we will use as an in-home small group (6-10) discussion. This is a great way to grow in faith and in relationship with one another. We will start right after January 1. We are looking for people who are willing to host and/or lead. We hope to have a high percent of Immanuel and friends participating.

If you are interested in starting a group or participating, it’s not too late. Please contact the church office (694-4156).

Thoughts on prayer

"You don't know how to pray? Put yourself in the presence of God, and as soon as you have said, 'Lord, I don't know how to pray!' you can be sure you have already begun."

—St. Josemaría Escrivá

"Seek a relationship when you pray, not answers. You won't always find answers, but you will always find Jesus."

—Father Mike Schmitz

"If the lungs of prayer and the Word of God do not nourish the breath of spiritual life, we risk suffocating in the midst of a thousand daily cares. Prayer is the breath of the soul and of life."

—Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI
