JEREMY FULLER ELECTED CONFERENCE PRESIDENT
At the 91st General Conference of God’s Missionary Church this week, the Conference Ministers and Delegates elected Jeremy Fuller as the new Conference President. President-Elect Fuller upholds the original vision of God’s Missionary Church for planting new churches. Having founded the congregation he now pastors, he has also been instrumental in the establishment of several other churches across multiple states. He and his wife serve as role models of the doctrines and standards of our Conference. Please pray for the Fuller family as they make this significant adjustment in their lives. The Beavertown Church stands ready to support them, as well as Jacob and Rhoda Martin as they begin their new ministry at the Sunbury Church. Our own Pastor Solomon Shaffer was elected Conference Vice President. We are grateful for his influence and ministry.
