

CREEK CONNECTION

July 22, 2026

This Sunday—as we talk about trusting God enough to take the next step—we'll journey into the life of Joshua and discover what happens when people like you and me trust an extraordinary God.

As Joshua stepped into an uncertain future, God reminded him, "I will be with you"—a promise that still gives courage and hope to believers today. Come discover how God continues to accomplish His work through everyday people who trust Him enough to obey.
