

Personnel Committee
FBC Joplin

Children's Minister Recommendation
Full Time

Job Description

To make disciples of children by overseeing current children's ministries through the teaching, the recruitment of volunteers, selection of curriculum, scheduling of workers.

To build relationships with families through ongoing ministries and special events.

To enlist and develop leaders in children's ministry.

To provide direction for expansion of our current children's ministries, with the possibility of including children's music.

To cast vision for future ministry opportunities.

To support the programs of the church.

To maintain a plan of personal, spiritual growth.

The position would encompass ages birth to youth (currently 5th grade.) In addition the Minister would be responsible for Vacation Bible School, Sunday and Wednesday night programs, as well as nursery programs. The ideal candidate would be someone with a degree in Children's Ministry (or equivalent) and have had previous experience in a similar position. The candidate should also have personal attributes and attitudes that would allow them to relate to children, parents, and current ministry staff. The personnel committee has also approved a search committee consisting of Amy Brake, Blair Dance, Charity Anderson, John Lewis, Lamont Buckner, Lisa Yates, and Rick Williams.