Asbury Film Festival 2025

Invite a friend to our summer series "Asbury Film Festival" where we look for God at the movies. We will examine practical life lessons and Biblical principles through the lens of a different film each week. The series begins on Sunday, July 20, and will run for five weeks. We will show each movie in the Sanctuary on Wednesday night at 6:30 p.m. prior to our Sunday sermon – with the exception of our first film which will be shown Thursday, July 17.

We have a unique opportunity in week three. The director of Lost on a Mountain in Maine, Andrew Kightlinger, will share the message. Andrew is originally from Pierre, SD and a graduate of Augustana University. You will not want to miss out! Invite a friend!

It is not necessary to view the movies in order to appreciate the sermons, but you may find it helpful and enjoyable. WARNING: Please pay attention to the ratings. Not all the movies are appropriate for children – and some adults may find some of the language and situations offensive. View at your discretion.

Movie Nights:

July 17 (Thursday) – Brother Bear (G) 2003

July 23 – Past Lives (PG-13) 2023

July 30 – Lost on a Mountain in Maine (PG) 2024

August 6 – Cheaper by the Dozen (G) 1950

August 13 – Wild Robot (PG) 2024

Popcorn will be provided FREE. Pop will be available for a donation to support camperships.

Join us for the movie nights! Join us for worship! This is a great opportunity to invite a friend or neighbor!
