

Welcome to Southwest Baptist Church

Pointing people to Jesus!

Sunday, March 15, 2020

With our current national situation, things are and will remain fluid. Events we have planned may have to be cancelled or postponed. None of this is taking God by surprise. He is sovereign and with us always no matter what lies ahead. Therein lies our peace and strength!

Please be mindful to check on each other preferably by calls or texts. If needs arise, your church family will be glad to help! We promise to monitor the situation closely. As changes occur, we will be sure to let our church family know. If you need added to the church email list, let Sarah Davis know.

Just as stores and restaurants are open to any who feel comfortable venturing out, we also will remain open and conduct our services for those who want to attend. This is not to guilt anyone into coming. This is to be available to those who want to and feel comfortable in coming for fellowship, encouragement, growth, prayer, and worship. We will continue to clean our church building and surfaces routinely and to the best of our ability.

Don't forget to wash your hands and fold them in prayer! Be a beacon of light to those in your life. Look for opportunities to share Christ's message and love.
