All Saints Sunday

Hinsdale
United Methodist Church

Order of Service

Prelude

“Come and Find the Quiet Center”
S. E. Murray

Belford Hernandez

Welcome

People of Hinsdale UMC
& Rev. Young-Mee Park

Opening Hymn

“For All the Saints”
(UMH 711, vs. 1-2, 4)

Joy Belt-Roselieb
& Belford Hernandez

1. For all the saints who from their labors rest, who thee by faith before the world confessed, thy name, O Jesus, be forever blest. Alleluia! Alleluia!
2. Thou wast their rock, their fortress, and their might;
thou, Lord, their captain in the well-fought fight;
thou, in the darkness drear, their one true light. Alleluia! Alleluia!
3. O blest communion, fellowship divine,
we feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
yet all are one in thee, for all are thine. Alleluia! Alleluia!

Opening Prayer

Lani Fabere

⁹ After this I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. ¹⁰ They cried out in a loud voice, saying,

“Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!”

¹¹ And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, ¹² singing, “Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen.”

¹³ Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, “Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?” ¹⁴ I said to him, “Sir, you are the one that knows.” Then he said to me, “These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. ¹⁵ For this reason they are before the throne of God, and worship him day and night within his temple, and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them. ¹⁶ They will hunger no more, and thirst no more; the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching heat; ¹⁷ for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

Sermon*“Heaven”*

Rev. Young-Mee Park

Hymn of Response*“Hymn of Promise”*

(UMH 707)

Joy Belt-Roselieb
& Belford Hernandez

1. In the bulb, there is a flower, In the seed, an apple tree
In cocoons, a hidden promise, butterflies will soon be free!
In the cold and snow of winter there's a spring that waits to be Unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see
2. There's a song in every silence, seeking word and melody
There's a dawn in every darkness, bringing hope to you and me
From the past will come the future, what it holds, a mystery,
Unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.
3. In our end is our beginning, in our time, infinity
In our doubt, there is believing, In our life, eternity
In our death, a resurrection, at the last, a victory
Unrevealed until its season something God alone can see.

The Great Thanksgiving

Rev. Young-Mee Park

The bread and the cup will be served in “Drive-Through” style on Sunday, November 1, from 11:15 a.m. through 11:45 a.m. at the church parking lot. Please use the Garfield St. entrance to enter. Social distancing and face covering will be a shared practice of all.

The Lord's Prayer

Leah Ostwald

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen

Benediction

Rev. Young-Mee Park
