Opening Prayer		Leah Ostwald
	God of our weary years, God of our silent tears, You who have brought us this far on the way; You who have by your might led us into the light, Keep us forever in the path, we pray. If our feet stray from the places, our God, where we met you; If our hearts dunk with the wine of the world, we forget you; Shadowed beneath your hand, may we forever stand, True to our God, true to our hearts' desired land.

Scripture Reading	Mark 1:21-28	Harry Sharp

<sup>21</sup> They went to Capernaum; and when the sabbath came, he entered the synagogue and taught. <sup>22</sup> They were astounded at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

<sup>23</sup> Just then there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, <sup>24</sup> and he cried out, “What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God.” <sup>25</sup> But Jesus rebuked him, saying, “Be silent, and come out of him!” <sup>26</sup> And the unclean spirit, convulsing him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him. <sup>27</sup> They were all amazed, and they kept on asking one another, “What is this? A new teaching—with authority! He<sup>[a]</sup> commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him.” <sup>28</sup> At once his fame began to spread throughout the surrounding region of Galilee.
